Santa Claus is coming early this year to Gettysburg.

He will arrive by helicopter Saturday morning at Bargaintown, 6th and York Sts., and will mount an outdoor platform at the front of the store where he will talk to the children.

Local boys and girls may place their Christmas orders beginning at 9 o'clock and continuing throughout the day. Early arrivals will be interviewed over WGET, which will set up broadcast facilities on Santa's platform.

The helicopter will land at the far rear of the store's parking lot and will not interfere with automobile parking facilities, according to Bargaintown officials. Special toy displays have been arranged inside the store and parents are invited to visit the store for a Christmas preview.

Santa's guests will receive free candy and "unlimited inspiration from the gentleman from the North Pole."

Letters have been mailed to local lodges, fire companies, churches and service clubs offering the service to avoid duplication of efforts and to provide greater distribution of assistance to more needy families. The Holiday Bureau is located in the Red Cross building, 141 Baltimore St. Telephone calls will be accepted from 2 to 4 o'clock in the afternoon and from 7 to 8 o'clock weekday evenings.

Council Permits Modern Languages In Sacraments

By GERALD I. MILLER
Associated Press Staff Writer
VATICAN CITY (AP) — The Vatican Ecumenical Council voted today to permit the use of modern language throughout the sacraments of the Roman Catholic Church, such as baptism and marriage, without retaining Latin even for key phrases.

The council also put aside, at least temporarily, controversial declarations on Jews and religious liberty.

The declarations on Jews and religious liberty, part of a schema on Christian unity, had been the key issues in the council's general debate on the schema.

DIFFER ON SCHEMA
In the discussions that started Monday some prelates said such declarations pertaining to non-Christians did not belong in the schema on Christian unity. Others said they did. Middle East patriarchs warned the

CROSS KEYS TO HAVE TRAFFIC LIGHTS SOON

Traffic lights will be installed at Cross Keys before Christmas.

That was what Reigelmeier's Traffic Service of Harrisburg told the Adams County commissioners Wednesday after being awarded the contract to place the lights at the intersection of Routes 30 and 94, a mile east of New Oxford.

Reigelmeier's was the only offer when the commissioners opened bids Wednesday. The company asked $8,263.60 for a fully automated lighting system.

The system eventually will provide an electronic ultrasonic sound system that will search out cars not only on Routes 94 and 30 but also entering the intersection from the service stations, diner and other businesses on the corners of the intersection.

Reigelmeier's representative explained that the final installation will contain what will be in effect a full system and a spare as long as the intersection remains as it is. If, at some time, left turn lanes are added the new lights could be attached to the "spare" ultrasonic system.

The Harrisburg concern plans to begin installation of the lights within a week. According to their report to the commissioners the traffic lights should be in operation within a month thereafter.

There will be two traffic lights on each road at the intersection. The state at the same time promises to work with the contractors to remove the "islands" in the intersection and otherwise help with the work of modernizing the traffic situation at the Cross Keys location.

RESTORE CLOCK CHIMES
The commissioners also will restore the chimes to the courthouse clock. Weishaar Brothers have been asked to install the mechanism needed to restore the sounding of the hour and half hour as the clock makes it sweep around the dial. The old courthouse clock has been soundless for some time.

The commissioners Wednesday decided to give the old copper ball which had been atop the weather vane for a century to the Adams County Historical Society. The copper ball was removed in the general repair work of renovating the courthouse and could not be returned to its former position. According to the commissioners, the ball has a bullet hole through it, "possibly from the Battle of Gettysburg." The hole was discovered when the ball was removed from its position atop the courthouse.

Other business Wednesday included acceptance of the resignations of Ira Bollman who was assessor of Franklin Twp., who was named veterans affairs administrator of the county.

Den Mothers Are Named For Pack

Mrs. Catherine Leedy, Gettysburg R. 5 and Mrs. Robert Redfield, 412 Carlisle St., were named den mothers for the new Cub Scout pack to be formed at the Presbyterian Church at an instructional meeting held at the church Wednesday night for adults interested in the pack.

Eugene Eckert, appointed Cubmaster last week, said 12 youngsters had made application to join the new pack when it starts functioning in about a week. Other youngsters aged 8 through 10 who wish to join are asked to notify the Cubmaster or den mothers.

The final instruction for adults will be held Monday evening at 8 o'clock at the church. Eleven attended the training session.

THETA CHI TO AROUSE SPIRIT FOR GRID GAME

Oh to be in college again where school spirit is synonymous with the ability to survive sleepless nights!

The 50 members of Theta Chi fraternity are going to forfeit a night's slumber for the sake of whipping up enough school spirit among the 1,500 students at Gettysburg College to rack up a winning score for the Bullets Saturday afternoon against Temple University.

"We're going to make the rounds of the fraternities Friday evening to whip up school spirit for the last game of the season," says Bill Allport, a student from Stamford, Conn.

The fraternity will entertain the girls from Alpha Delta Pi sorority Friday evening at dinner, after which the entire group will visit other fraternities in an attempt to enlist "spirit" for a rally.

ALL NIGHT VIGIL

Regardless of how many other students join them, the Theta Chi brothers will sit all night in the bleachers under a spotlight to evoke the kind of school spirit a team needs to win a game, the boys say. They will sing, chant and cheer; drums will roll and guitars will strum in what could easily become a "hootenanny" to end all campus complacency. The frat men will remain in the stand until game time. No member of the fraternity is on the football team.

The boys from Theta Chi will give up a night's sleep if the rest of the school gets behind the Bullets with a good strong wave of school spirit, Allport says.

NEW LAWS TO CHANGE TREND IN EDUCATION

Laws passed at the recent session of the state legislature mark a "turning point in the history of education in Pennsylvania," Attorney John D. Killian III, deputy Pennsylvania attorney general and chief counsel for the state Department of Public Instruction, told the local branch of the American Association of University Women at a meeting held Wednesday evening in the West St. bank.

Killian, speaking on "Education and Legislation" was the second of three speakers scheduled by the AAUW on the theme "Expectations For Education." He said the legislation passed at the last session "marks an end of the system of patching up our educational program. We have begun basic and long range reforms urgently needed for the new era."

MORE FUNDS

Among major legislation passed was an increase of the base for reimbursement to the local school districts from $5,800 to $6,500, with another increase, to $6,800, scheduled for the 1964-65 school year. Cost of the increased reimbursement will be $85,000,000 over a two-year period.

Teachers salaries were increased. The new minimum of $4,200 in 1963-1964 moves to $4,500 in 1964-65. Annual increments of $300 will push the state average (Continued on Page 16)

TWO WAGONS ARE STOLEN

Plans for a "Sadie Hawkins" dance Saturday evening from 7:30 to 10:45 o'clock at the Youth Center, N. Washington St., were outlined Tuesday evening at a meeting of the board of directors there. The board expressed the hope that two little red wagons removed from the back yard of the Youth Center Halloween evening will be returned. The wagons had been borrowed from two children for the parade and the youngsters want their wagons.

A report by Rachael Williams on the bake sale Saturday showed profits of $14.65. Plans were made to sell fruit cakes on Lincoln Square Saturday to help raise money for the building fund.

Mrs. Rex Maddox reported 11 more books of green stamps are needed to secure a record player for the Youth Center.

Plans were outlined for a senior high semi-formal Christmas dance December 21 and for a junior high "snow ball" Christmas dance December 28.

It was announced that the Gettysburg auto-medics will meet at 7 o'clock this evening at the Youth Center; the senior high activities committee will meet there at the same hour.

Friday evening a record hop will be held from 7:30 to 10:45.

14-Year-Old Cancer Victim Battles To Regain Strength

By DORIS O'DONNELL
The Plain Dealer

CLEVELAND (AP) — Christine Simko, battling to face each dawn with a smile, finds her days and nights filled with pain, fitful slumber and anguish.

In the first interview with Christine since her right leg was amputated 11 days ago to halt a cancer, she displayed a variety of moods — each overshadowed by tears.

"I'm so weak," the 14-year-old girl sighed struggling to adjust her position by grasping for a metal triangle over her bed.

TEARS OF ANGER
Frustration in reaching the bar brought tears of anger and defeat. They splashed onto the pillow from her gray-blue eyes.

Her mother, Mrs. Lily Simko, who visits daily at her bedside, offered help the girl rejected. Moments later when a social service worker tried to adjust a pillow she cried: "Don't touch me."

Mrs. Simko explained Christine's nerves are still raw and "she can't stand to have anyone touch her bed."

PAIN IS NORMAL

However, during the anguish of waiting for a pill to alleviate the pain, Christine welcomed and clung to the cool hands of hospital aides pressed to her hot forehead.

Doctors at Cleveland Metropolitan General Hospital report the pain and discomfort Christine is enduring is "normal." Her crying is "not any more than we have a perfect right to expect," a doctor said.

Her mother says she still doesn't understand why the amputation was necessary. She said she had Christine in the hospital in August and September.

A film, "Accepting the Challenge," in which General Eisenhower extolled the importance of Young Republican Clubs and urged young people "who believe in the responsibility of the individual to join this worthwhile organization," was shown at a meeting of the Adams County Young Republican Clubs Tuesday evening in the West St. bank.

Members discussed a plan to amend the constitution to eliminate the requirement that the vice president of the club be of the opposite sex as the president. The Misses Mary Ellen Martz and Joyce Starry and John Olson were appointed to the nominating committee. They will present a slate of candidates at next month's meeting. Additional nominations may be made by club members at that time.

SPOOK EVENT HAS DEFICIT; NEW SPONSOR

Gettysburg's Halloween committee Wednesday night made an appeal for $11.94 to erase a deficit and turn the program over to the Kiwanis Club.

Reports at a meeting of the committee at the VFW home revealed the deficit, the first time in its history, according to Chairman Robert Swisher.

An appeal was made to those who contributed in previous years but did not give anything this year to send contributions to the treasurer, Attorney S. M. Raffensperger, Gettysburg.

At the same time the committee voted unanimously to turn the program over to the Kiwanis Club. J. William Ditzler said the club will take over "if no one else will take it."

He asked members of the community committee to assist the club.

He expressed the hope that the queen contest can be increased in popularity to the point where it will be unnecessary for an annual solicitation for funds.

Attorney Raffensperger's report showed bills of $1,428.15 and income of $1,316.21. Donations so far totaled $749.50. Income from the sale of tickets for the queen pageant was $418. The organization began the year with a balance of $147.71. Expenditures included $44.60 for postage and printing, $75 for poster prizes, $936 parade prizes and $342.19 for the queen contest. The expenditures for the queen event included $17 for insurance, $50 for use of the auditorium, $50 for the entertainment, $30 for judges, $8 for advertising, $20 for stage hands, $44.69 dinner for contestants and judges, $118 for 14 bracelets given the queen contestants, the three loving cups presented the winners and engraving and $4.50 for the queen's crown.

Robert Swisher, president of the committee which has sponsored the parade for many years, expressed his thanks to all who "helped make our program this year the best ever."

EMMITSBURG SEEKS ANNEX TO ITS SCHOOL

The proposed consolidated school in the northern section of Frederick County continued as the main topic of discussion at a meeting of the mayor and town council of Emmitsburg held Tuesday evening.

A spokesman for the councilmen said they felt a school was needed in Emmitsburg right now and they are of the opinion that, if one is built in Thurmont, Emmitsburg will never get one.

He said that at the present time there is an excess of about 450 students in the Emmitsburg school. What the town is seeking is an addition to the school of about 12 classrooms, he said. The water and sewer facilities are already available, he continued.

In other business before the town council, the tax rate for the six-month period from January 1 to June 30, 1964, was set at 35 cents per $100. This is half the normal yearly rate of 70 cents per $100.

WORK ON MAINS

Work on the new water mains for the town is scheduled to get underway within the next two weeks. The contract for those mains was awarded about two weeks ago.

It was noted that the natural gas mains from Gettysburg have reached the town limits on U. S. Route 15.

A final topic of discussion in the meeting was the possible increase in the number of town commissioners from three to five. Commissioner J. Norman Flax, the spokesman for the council, said the workload for each commissioner had increased to such an extent they felt the increase may be warranted.

OBESSE CHILD SHUNS ACTION

BOSTON (AP) — It's just like trying to make a horse drink: You may lead a fat child into sports but he may not exercise.

A Boston doctor took movies of overweight and normal weight children engaging in individual and team activities. Even in games, the obese children on the average were much less active than the nonobese.

Take tennis. Dr. Jean Mayer, associate professor of nutrition at the Harvard School of Public Health, says this:

"The active player went after the ball while his inactive competitor attempted a return only when the ball was returned to his immediate vicinity."

Dr. Mayer and his associate, Dr. Beverly Bullen, made an analysis that showed the average child was inactive 20 per cent of the time in tennis while the obese child managed to remain inactive 55 per cent of the time.

In volleyball, obese children were even less active. They succeeded in remaining inactive 82 per cent of the time, compared with 54 per cent inactivity for the average-weight player. The fat child tends to wait until the ball is within range before moving.

And swimming periods for the overweight children proved to be delightfully motionless. While average children were inactive in the water less than a quarter of the time, the overweight managed 72 per cent inactivity.

"The overweight children just stood in the water talking," says Dr. Mayer.

All this leads to his conclusion that "even with a reasonably calorie-controlled diet in combination with planned recreation, it is going to be difficult to achieve weight reduction unless the overweight child is also induced to participate actively in the planned activities."

Obstacles Face French Captain

NORFOLK, Va. (AP) — Being a ship's captain has its ups and downs.

And keeping up with them is a matter of vital dollars for captains such as Jean Morize, master of the French cargo vessel Mekambo.

Capt. Morize noted that the port of Savone, Italy, has a draft of 30 feet. But when the Mekambo took on 22,150 tons of coal at Lamberts Point it sank to a draft of 33 feet.

He calculated the 12-day trip to Savone will burn up enough fuel to bring the Mekambo up to 30 feet.

Actually, the ship could load another 5,000 tons of coal, but that would make a difference of one foot — enough to put the Mekambo aground in the Savone channel.

The Mekambo sailed from Genoa for Norfolk with 13,000 tons of ballast. About 7,000 tons of this was discharged enroute.

Coming in, Capt. Morize had a problem of a different sort. The vessel had to be deep enough to get under the coal loaders at Lamberts Point.

U.S. REALTOR BACKS FAMOUS PARIS STYLIST

By KATHRYN JOHNSON ATLANTA (AP) — The man who holds the pursestrings for the fashion house that is one of the current sensations of Paris is an astute, quiet-spoken Atlanta who speaks little French — it's with a Southern accent.

Handsome, 40-year-old J. Mack Robinson, who dealt in insurance and consumer loans for years, was in Switzerland two years ago when the proposal for backing the young French designer Yves St. Laurent was presented to him.

"I was investigating real estate investments at the time," he says. "I was completely ignorant on fashion, and it was a very nice proposal and it is working out satisfactorily for both of us."

Robinson's financial backing of St. Laurent is entirely a personal venture.

"St. Laurent's fine background influenced me more than anything else to back him," says Robinson.

St. Laurent had already provided a spectacular success as the short term head of the House of Dior, which post he assumed at the age of 21, with Christian Dior's death.

His connection ended when he was called into military service. After his discharge, St. Laurent was faced with the fact that his replacement, Marc Bohan, had scored a huge success and the House of Dior was unwilling to negotiate a satisfactory contract.

In stepped Robinson and St. Laurent had a fashion house of his own.

"Yves is shy but has tremendous talent, Robinson says. "We feel that he designs very high fashion, while at the same time, 90 per cent of it is wearable. The minute one collection is down, he begins drawing another."

How does it feel to be on the inside world of chignon and satin? Does his wife ask what hemlines will be doing next season?

"I wouldn't know — I'd rather not know," Robinson laughs. "I never enter the fashion studio. Yves and I work together well, one handles the finances, one the designing."

"He is doing all the work and doing a marvelous job of it," the calm-spoken, blue-eyed executive says.

"Yves is certainly a genius in his field. I couldn't see two years ago how I would lose. Now I realize we've been fortunate. I didn't realize the risks I was taking. I didn't know so many fashion houses were losing money."

When word leaked out several months ago that Robinson was St. Laurent's backer, most of the people in his own office didn't know it.

And his attractive, green-eyed wife of three years was a bit unhappy that her husband's investment was made public. "So many people now expect me to wear originals all the time," she says.

Mrs. Robinson, a petite size 8, visits Paris with her husband on his business trips, and has worn many St. Laurent originals. He is, of course, her favorite designer. "She thinks he's magnificent," her husband says.

"Profits in the business business are highest when manufacturers buy the designs," Robinson says. "Profits are low on designs for individual clients."

Original St. Laurent designs range from $500 to $3,000.

"The real money in the fashion business is to be made from licensing agreements," Robinson adds.

"We've had fantastic offers and declined three-fourths of them, from company's wanting us to design such things as perfumes, sweaters, stockings and use our names."

"We won't agree unless we design what's being sold and know every aspect of it; it must be top quality all the way."

Electric Company Plans Rate Cut

HARRISBURG (AP) — The Pennsylvania Electric Co., Johnstown, says 90 per cent of its 356,129 domestic and farm customers in 31 northern and western counties will benefit from a $1,911,000 annual rate deduction effective Dec. 2.

The decrease, averaging $5.37 per customer yearly, was approved Wednesday by the Public Utility Commission. Bills will be lowered for customers using over 45 kilowatt hours of electricity a month for general household purposes.

A $67,100 annual reduction in house heating rates was approved by the PUC earlier and went into effect last Aug. 23. The cut in rates has been made possible by the continued increase in residential use, the company said.

The high court replied to a letter written by Miss Carolyn Binderup, a student at the Sheridan Elementary School.

The youngster wrote that she was concerned about a court ruling banning Bible reading and prayers in public school classrooms. She wondered if the decision extended to Christmas carols, many of which are religious songs.

In a letter signed by Court Clerk John F. Davis, by E. P. Cullinan, chief deputy, the court said:

"Replying to your letter of Nov. 14, you are advised that there has been no opinion of this court covering the singing of Christmas carols in schools."

NEW YORK (AP) — In tones usually filled with melancholy say Greenwich Village ain't what it used to be.

What they mean is that the Village's widely publicized bohemian atmosphere in the earlier years of this century somehow imparted a vitamin tonic to dozens of writers and artists who climbed the slippery ladder of fame. Nowadays it seems some of the flavor and vigor of those creative times has been lost.

But the oldtimers also will have to admit that upper Madison Ave. has changed with the years. In midtown, Madison is synonymous with advertising Upper Madison for years was very ordinary. Now its burgeoning with fashionable translation: expensive apartments, specialty shops and droves of art galleries.

A few decades ago when you wanted to identify the center and hub of New York's art market, all you had to say was "Fifty-Seventh St." That one cross-town thoroughfare was thick with art and antique shops. Whether you wanted an old master or the latest fad among the moderns, you'd do most of your looking on 57th.

Fifty-Seventh still is important. But in recent years Madison Ave. northward has been filling up with new galleries, into the 60s and 70s, close to the big new apartments.

From down in the Village to Upper Madison is only a few miles, but a half century can be spanned in such a journey.

WHITNEY TO MOVE

All this is called to mind by the recent announcement of the Whitney Museum of American Art that in three years it will move to a new building to be constructed at Madison Ave. and E. 75th St. At present the Whitney is on W. 54th.

The Whitney began in the Village, on W. 8th St.

Before the first World War Gertrude Vanderbilt Whitney, a wealthy patroness of the arts and a sculptor herself, was busy helping young artists — the progressive ones, meaning those who disliked the "academic" trends of the day.

She paid the overhead for places where the young artists' work could be displayed and sold — the Whitney Studio, later the Whitney Studio Club, which lasted into 1928. Finally she founded and endowed the Whitney Museum, which opened its 8th St. headquarters in 1931.

The Museum has changed with the years too, mostly by growing. In 1954, a dozen years after the founder's death it moved to its present midtown location, a four-story building. Now it has to have larger quarters to house and display its 1,600 items.

In 1956 "The Friends of the Whitney Museum," an organization of collectors and benefactors, was organized. They have helped add to the Museum's collections.

Until two years ago the Museum's board of trustees was a family affair, composed almost entirely of Mrs. Whitney's children. But at that time, eight new trustees were added from the ranks of "The Friends," and the family nature of the institution was greatly modified. A year ago Mrs. John F. Kennedy was added to the board.

NEAR SEVERAL

When it moves to Upper Madison, the Whitney will be leaving behind the Museum of Modern Art (on W. 53rd), but it will be near several others.

One block west is Fifth Ave., which contains the Frick Collection at E. 70th, the Metropolitan Museum of Art at E. 82nd, and the Guggenheim Museum at E. 89th. The art auction center, Parke-Bernet Galleries Inc., is on Madison at 77th.

And Upper Madison's many commercial galleries are within walking distance.

As Lloyd Goodrich, director of the Whitney, remarked when the prospective move was announced, the new site is "the center of the art world," at least as far as New York is concerned.

New Oxford Delays Refinancing Bonds

New Oxford's $875,000 municipal authority bond issue will not be refinanced, members of the authority and borough council, meeting in joint session, decided Tuesday evening. The bond was issued in 1959 to finance the borough's sewerage system and improve the water plant. Refinancing was considered early this month if a substantial saving could result.

Tuesday's decision was based on a report from the bonding firm of Eastman Dillon Union Securities, Inc., Philadelphia, that the savings would amount to only $38,000. Members agreed to wait for a "more favorable" bond market. Charles Alwine, authority chairman, was in charge of the meeting which was attended by 10 representatives from the two bodies.

ASK FAMILIES TO MAKE SURE ON DIABETES

It is important to find out if anyone in the family has diabetes, and, if so, that the person who has it learns how to control it. This is one aim of the Diabetes Week, which is a part of the 1963 Diabetes Detection Drive in Adams County.

The family can play a basic role in making everyone aware of the symptoms of diabetes and in encouraging testing, according to Dr. Raymond F. Sheely, chairman of the 1963 drive.

Diabetes is hereditary—it "runs in families." Indeed, statistics show that diabetes is more than five times more common among relatives of people with diabetes than in families with no known cases of the condition. But many others also can become diabetic, since one out of every four people are estimated to be diabetic "carriers"—individuals who do not have the condition themselves, but who transmit the tendency to their children.

Dr. Sheely also said that women over 40 and married women more than single women, are more likely to have diabetes than men. Why, no one knows for sure, but various theories have been suggested.

"Pregnancy, for instance, could be a factor. Certain glandular changes occur during pregnancy and these can affect the way the body uses starches and sugars. Also, after pregnancy, many women retain the weight they have gained. Diabetes, in the majority of cases, is associated with overweight," Dr. Sheely pointed out.

Children under a year old very rarely develop diabetes and, although it is commoner among older children and young people, it is most of all a condition of the middle and older age groups. However, diabetes can strike at any time. Cases have been known in a nine-day-old boy and in a 99-year-old woman.

The test for diabetes is simple and quick.

Migrant Church Pleads For Funds

Adams County migrants supporting a migrant church near Bendersville were unable to meet a $1,600 goal set for completing the church for year-round use by $600. Rev. Joseph Haggler, migrant chaplain, told The Times today. The amount represents final bills for materials to enclose the building, which was used last summer by the county's nearly 1,000 Protestant and Catholic migrants.

Rev. Haggler said that the harvest season ended before the migrants were able to meet the final goal from their weekly payrolls. He said the deficit can be met next summer, but that he hopes to be able to obtain sufficient assistance from local sources to pay off the remaining miscellaneous bills this year.

Rev. Haggler will accept contributions made payable to the Adams County Migrant Church and mailed to him at 165 Lincoln St., Carlisle, Pa.

PURDY BLASTS "BUY-OFFS" IN TRAFFIC FINES

By JACK LYNCH

HARRISBURG (AP) — The state police commissioner today called for elimination of "cafeteria justice" in the handling of traffic violations as a way of reducing death on the highways.

"Traffic courts should take a realistic approach to the mounting traffic problem," Col. E. Wilson Purdy added in a hard-hitting speech at the annual meeting of the Governor's Conference on Traffic Safety.

"We must strive to eliminate bond forfeitures for traffic violations — cafeteria justice — wherein $5 buys you a stop sign violation, $10 a speeding violation, or you can buy a driving while intoxicated for $100," he said, adding:

"I firmly believe that if every judge were required to ride patrol one Friday or Saturday night per month as an observer, we would witness a substantial reduction in both crime and accident rates."

CITES STATISTICS

Purdy warned the statistically 120 of the 1,800 persons attending the day-long conference could be in an accident within the next 12 months "and a 50-50 chance that one person will be involved in a fatal accident."

He called for more intensive training of local police officers in traffic control and more emphasis on preventive enforcement of traffic laws rather than punitive enforcement.

Lt. Gov. Raymond P. Shafer, in remarks opening the session, said Pennsylvania has one of the lowest accidental death rates—3.9 deaths per hundred million vehicle miles in 1962, compared with 5.3 nationally. He added:

"I am sure that all of us feel that so long as a single person is killed or injured on our highways, there will be a need for conferences of this nature."

Police Chief John R. Jubal of State College also called for mandated training of all municipal police with statewide standards for uniformity.

Bobby Rydell Earned $545,000

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Bobby Rydell, the teen-age singer from South Philadelphia, earned $545,000 before he became 21, last April 28, an accounting of his estate in Orphans Court showed today.

The account showed expenses of $376,000 leaving a balance of $159,000 before taxes, which took another $80,000.

Rydell, whose real name is Robert Louis Ridarelli, didn't have control of his earnings because he was under-age. His money was handled by a court-appointed guardian, Judith J.

Alcatraz "Birdman," 74, Dies In Sleep At Medical Center

SPRINGFIELD, Mo. (AP)—Robert Stroud, 74, the long-time convict and writer who became known as the "Birdman of Alcatraz," died today in the U.S. Medical Center.

The prisoner, behind bars for 54 years, had spent 43 years in solitary confinement in three federal prisons. He was originally sentenced to hang for a 1909 Alaskan barroom slaying. This sentence was commuted to life and he later was given a life sentence for killing a guard at the U.S. penitentiary at Leavenworth, Kan., in 1916.

Dr. Jesse Harris, warden of the center, said Stroud was found dead in his cell bed at 5:45 a.m. CST. He said Stroud had died in his sleep of natural causes and infirmities of age.

He had not been assigned duties for the last four months and before that had been employed in the prison book binding shop.

MOVIE RESULTED

Stroud climbed to fame with his experiments on birds and his writing about his work, a hobby which led to the movie "The Birdman of Alcatraz."

It was at Alcatraz prison where he conducted most of his experiments.

U.S. Faces Crucial Years In Fight To Curb Reds In Asia

WASHINGTON (AP) — For this country South Viet Nam has been a cork in a bottle, preventing communism from spilling into all the Southeast Asian peninsula. The cork just got tweaked.

Cambodia, next door to Viet Nam, has canceled all American help. It will almost certainly now depend more on Red China, giving communism a foot in the door even wider than Viet Nam.

Cambodia is in the very heart of the peninsula, bordered by Viet Nam, Laos and Thailand. Prince Norodom Sihanouk, the Cambodian leader, has said he is convinced the Communists already have won the battle for Viet Nam and feels his own neutral country will eventually fall to communism.

His attitude and his refusal to accept any more American guns or money are a searing reminder the United States is living on borrowed time in Southeast Asia, and perhaps all Asia.

The Red Chinese, trying to catch up with the 20th century and still lacking nuclear weapons, have so far avoided a showdown with this country in South-

HEADS GROUP TO ALTER LAWS

HARRISBURG (AP) — Lt. Gov. Raymond P. Shafer will head a committee named by the Scranton administration to draw up plans for revising Pennsylvania's 89-year-old constitution by the amendment process.

Shafer was co-chairman of a bipartisan committee which made an unsuccessful attempt to win voter approval for a constitutional convention.

In announcing formation of the new group, Gov. Scranton noted that many opponents of the proposed convention, defeated in the Nov. 5 election, indicated that they would support the amendment procedure.

Detailed amendments drawn up by the new committee will be submitted to the 1964 General Assembly with administration support, Scranton said.

Assisting Shafer on the committee will be Atty. Gen. Walter E. Alessandrini and William A. Schnader, director of the Pennsylvania Bar Association's "Project Constitution," an amendment revision program.

Missing Plane Found In Gulf

KEY WEST, Fla. (AP) — The wreckage of a WU2 spy plane which vanished Wednesday, presumably after a mission over Cuba, was found today in 100-foot deep water in the Gulf of Mexico. The body of the pilot was not in the cockpit.

An air-sea search by Navy and Coast Guard planes and surface craft was continued for the pilot, Capt. Joe G. Hyde Jr. of LaGrange, Ga.

Capt. Ernest H. Dunlap, chief of staff of the commander of the Key West Navy Base, said two Navy salvage vessels, Petrel and Shrike, had reached the wreckage and determined that the pilot was not in the cockpit.

In another vote, they again voted with the majority, as the Senate defeated 46-36 another amendment that would have cut $519 million from the appropriation.

east Asia by not intervening directly.

It can only be a matter of time before the belligerent Chinese feel strong enough to try to drive American power and influence out of Asia altogether.

Meanwhile it can use what is obvious and comes handy, like subversion, various pressures and even local Communist guerrillas to avoid a direct confrontation with this country.

CRUCIAL DAYS AHEAD

For the United States, which for years had its hand full trying to achieve effective anti-Communist resistance in embattled Viet Nam, the years ahead seem sure to hold more critical, dismal, unhappy days.

Just this week President Kennedy in Florida said the American states must be ready to go to the aid of any Latin-American government requesting help against a Communist takeover.

When this country feels so strongly about preventing communist penetration of this hemisphere, it is not unnatural the Red Chinese feel the same way about Western penetration or interference in Asia.

U.S. PRECAUTIONS

What can the United States do?

What it is doing: trying to bolster anti-Communist or neutral Asian regimes to prevent a Red takeover.

What hope of success can it have in the long run?

Probably only this: that perhaps the Red Chinese Communist government will somehow collapse or that, over the intervening years, it can be induced to let its neighbors work out their destiny in their own way.

At the moment both seem like forlorn hopes.

FIGURES CHART ALL CHANGES IN COST INDEX

By SAM DAWSON

AP Business News Analyst NEW YORK (AP) — Hardest for many Americans to comprehend are the government figures on personal income and the cost of living.

More often than not the government agencies report that personal incomes have risen to a new high and that the cost of living hasn't budged much.

Millions of citizens usually react by grumbling that they sure haven't noticed any gains in their incomes while the bills seem to get a little higher month after month.

BOTH CORRECT

Both the skeptical citizens and the government statisticians could be right.

Somebody's income has gone up—enough of the somebodies to change the totals for the nation.

And costs of some things you may not be buying just now may have gone down enough to offset rises in the prices and fees and fares and rents you may be paying. And so the government's consumer price index rises little, if at all.

The government has just announced the biggest monthly increase in personal incomes in 18 months—$3 billion at an annual rate. But the Department of Commerce reminds civilians that one-third of that boost is due to a military pay raise.

LARGER PAYROLLS

The rest is distributed among increased payrolls in a number of factories in many industries, and in state and local government offices, along with some gains in rents, dividends and interest.

Higher employment totals also swell incomes a bit for those in the selling, financing and servicing endeavors.

The impressive record now tops $470 billion on an annual rate, 5 per cent up from the previous year.

Closely tied to the rise in personal incomes perhaps are the spending intentions the Census Bureau reports.

It says 4.5 per cent of the 17,500 families it questioned last month plan to buy a new car in the next six months, compared to 4.1 per cent a year ago, and 21.5 per cent plan to buy at least one household appliance within six months, compared with 20.7 per cent in October 1962. Those intending to buy a new house within 12 months edged up to 2 per cent from 1.9 per cent a year earlier.

Clark, Scott Vote To Cut Space Costs

WASHINGTON (AP) — Pennsylvania's U.S. Senators, Democrat Joseph Clark and Republican Hugh Scott voted with the majority Wednesday as the Senate adopted 40-39 an amendment cutting $90 million from a $3.19 billion appropriation bill for the civilian space program.

In another vote, they again voted with the majority, as the Senate defeated 46-36 another amendment that would have cut $519 million from the appropriation.

Oldest Garage To Go Out Of Business: Gettysburg's oldest garage is going out of business. Announcement was made last week of the forthcoming public sale of all the equipment of the Central Auto company, York street, to be held at 7 o'clock in the evening, November 17.

Repair work at the garage was discontinued several months ago and the sale will dispose of all the equipment to close out the business.

The Central Auto company was founded in 1911 by the late William F. Codori Sr. It grew with the progress of the modern automobile until the death of the founder in 1933. The garage continued in operation but the Codori heirs turned the major part of their attention to the wholesale and retail sale of petroleum products. Some time ago the company, known as the Citizens Oil company, became distributors in the county for roofing materials and a nationally known tire. All the company's attention will be devoted to these activities in the future.

Joseph E. Codori is manager of the firm.

George Eberhart, proprietor of the Hotel Eberhart, opened the first garage in Gettysburg, in the building at the rear of the present C. W. Epley garage. It was opened in 1906, but has been out of existence for a number of years.

Factory Whistles Used To Call Help: Low pressure in a valve in the sprinkler system at the local furniture factories indirectly caused some Gettysburgians to believe that an air raid alarm was being conducted when the furniture factory whistles were blown early Saturday morning.

An alarm system which tells when one of the valves opens in the sprinkler system warned nightmen at the plant that one of the valves had a low pressure — usual sign of a fire, officials of the plant said today.

Unable to locate the trouble a night employee blew the factory whistle to summon assistance.

Flash Floods Delay Train; Many Washouts: Intermittent downpours that began late Sunday evening and continued part of Monday evening flooded roads, homes and business places, caused small streams to overflow their banks, delayed many motorists Monday afternoon and evening.

Dr. Henry Stewart, official weather recorder here, reported that 2.2 inches of rain fell in the 24 hours preceding 5 p.m. Monday.

A new contingent of aviation students headed for Gettysburg college had a taste of flood conditions when the Reading train on which they were traveling was held up more than three hours by washouts on the line.

The contingent was on the regular train leaving Harrisburg 5:20 p.m. Monday and arrived in Gettysburg shortly after 10:30 p.m. The train made a 20 minute stop at Biglerville to determine the conditions of the track ahead when a small washout was found near Table Rock. It then continued to Gettysburg where another washout halted the train from 7:20 p.m. to about 10 p.m.

Nearly all low spots in roads leading into town were flooded, with Rock Creek reported over the Bonneauville road and level with the bottom of the bridge on the Lincoln highway east of town. The creek was reported over the Harrisburg road.

Today's Talk
YOURSELF

When Socrates gave to the world that famous two-word command — "Know thyself" — he probably didn't realize that it would live for centuries. As a matter of fact the simply stated truths are those that do live. They sit tight in the memory.

Few of us know even a small part of all that we are. Even our bodies are mysteries to many. It is only because of education and research that the average life has been greatly lengthened. People take better care of their bodies now than they did a hundred years or more ago. To know your own body, and how to treat it, is to increase your health and the total number of days that you live.

We now know what a master the Mind can be — how it can control health, map out plans, and master the destiny of other people, we well. The goodly portion of people in this world have no idea as to how wonderful they are!

How grateful we should be to those who help us to see the sort of human being that we are. Often someone else has to strike the match that lights the spark of enthusiasm and incentive within us.

Firstly, you must never forget that you are an entity — that you are really unique, no matter how humble your origin, or the circumstances surrounding your daily life. If you cannot do something to startle the world, you can at least do something that is sure to be useful to the world — and that is far more laudable.

Study yourself. Learn all you can about yourself, all about your latent talents, desires, hopes and dreams. Avoid no useful contact. Keep ever alive. And don't pine! You own the elements of some greatness, be they ever so small.

Look them over, one and all, Check your traits, the great and small, Did your temper ever do Anything worthwhile for you? Are you proud of anything Done at envy's whispering?

Wise the man who truly knows Who his friends are and his foes! Wise the man who separates Carefully his various traits, And from such a tangled heap Chooses what are good to keep.

Mrs. Wolfner was 62 when she died in Miami Beach, Fla., in 1962. She left an estate of $3.1 million to her two adopted sons. Her first husband was Charles W. Bidwill, wealthy sportsman.

Littlestown News
MEMBERSHIP IN PTA HAS REACHED 226

The membership of the Littlestown Jointure Parent-Teacher Association now totals 226, as reported at the November meeting and open house held on Tuesday evening in the general purpose room of the Rolling Acres Elementary School. Mrs. Gene R. Renner, membership chairman, announced that the drive has concluded; but new members are invited to join at any time.

In connection with the annual open house and belated American Education Week observance on Tuesday at the Rolling Acres and Maple Avenue Schools, John H. Riley, elementary principal, reported that an estimated 25 percent of the parents of the pupils visited the schools during the day. Some of the visitors were guests for lunch in the school cafeteria. Approximately 740 persons visited during the day, had conferences with the teachers prior to PTA, and attended the meeting. Mr. Riley announced that the response to the day's affair was good.

President Oliver Seguin reported that an imaginary food sale will be conducted as this year's fund raising event. It is hoped that each member will contribute at least 50 cents. Subscriptions for the PTA magazine for $1.50 may be placed with Mrs. Fred H. Hartlaub, secretary. Reports were given by Mrs. Hartlaub and Mrs. Richard A. Little Jr., treasurer. Mr. Riley announced that the public is invited to attend a Christmas program by Grades Three and Four on Friday, December 13 in the Maple Avenue school auditorium. The evening's attendance award went to the second grade taught by Miss Mary Catherine Shildt. Frank E. Basehor, high school principal, announced that the annual Christmas program by the high school students will be presented on Wednesday, Dec. 18 for the public in the school auditorium. The Adams County Council of PTA will meet in Littlestown this evening at 8 o'clock.

EVALUATE PROGRAM

The meeting began with the singing of "America," followed with the pledge to the flag. Devotions consisted of "A Norwegian Prayer," sung by the Junior girls sextet, Peggy Myers, Linda Hess, Martha Ritter, Jackie Elder, Joyce Kershner and Patty Little, accompanied by Carolyn Kump. A recitation, "The Creation," was given by Linda Sentz. The sextet and accompanist then sang a Negro spiritual.

Mrs. Luther W. Ritter was chairman for the program on the theme "Evaluating Our Program." She played a recorded message from the president of the National PTA Congress, Clifford Jenkins.

SKIT PRESENTED

A skit, "The Greatest American," was presented by the following cast of Sixth Graders, and their teacher, under the direction of Mrs. Theresa Eshbach: Teacher, Miss Collins; Bobby, Terry Updyke; Marion, Toni Robert; Sandra, Joanne Sponseller; Tony David Mummert, and Jimmy, Drew Plunkett.

Refreshments were served during the social hour by Mrs. George Schaefer, Mrs. Paul Hull, Mrs. John Gentzler, Mrs. Robert Cluck and Mrs. John W. Hankey. Baby-sitting service during the PTA session was volunteered by the high school FHA Club.

The PTA will attend the high school Christmas program in place of having a meeting, as is the annual custom. The next regular meeting will be held January 21, when there will be a symposium on "Spiritual Values" with Mrs. George Shultz Jr. as program chairman.

PLAN CHRISTMAS PARTY

The Men's Brotherhood of St. John's Lutheran Church will hold a family Christmas party on December 9 and not on Dec. 6 as previously announced.

CLAIMS ESTIMATES FALSE

Annis told the committee that arguments for the administration bill rest upon false assumptions—that debilitating illness is universal among those 65 and older, that such people are generally economically deprived and that therefore "a massive rescue operation by the federal government" is needed.

The facts, Annis said, are that about 10 million persons out of the 17.5 million 65 or older carry some sort of health insurance and that the existing Kerr-Mills law provides means for helping those who need assistance.

The committee was told Wednesday that the AMA President does not speak for all physicians.

AMA DECLARES PLAN FOR AGED 'UNNECESSARY'

By EDMOND LEBRETON
Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The American Medical Association claimed today that President Kennedy's program for health care of the aged would cost twice the estimated take — and that it is unnecessary anyhow.

The big organization of physicians raked the administration's plan in testimony prepared for the House Ways and Means Committee by its two top officers, President Edward R. Annis of Miami and President-Elect Norman A. Welch of Boston.

ESTIMATES HIGH COST

Annis said the proposal for hospital and nursing home benefits for the aged under social security would require an increase of one half of 1 percent, instead of one fourth, in the payroll tax of employers and employees. Testimony of administration witnesses themselves, he contended, establishes a higher figure.

The legislation now before the committee, which has no plan to act on it this year, contemplates a one-fourth of 1 percent increase and also enlarging the base of the tax from the present $4,800 per individual to $5,200. Administration witnesses have said this would mean an average increase of $12 a year per employed worker, and that no employee would have to pay as much more as $28.

But Annis contended that even the beginning costs had been underestimated.

LONDON (AP) — Government programs "far in excess of anything tried in our country up to now" are being prepared, says Great Britain's prime minister, Sir Alec Douglas-Home.

The prime minister, whose Conservative party faces a strong challenge from the Labor party in elections next year, said Britain could enjoy the benefits of an expanding economy with a little extra effort by every worker.

Sir Alec made the remarks in a speech televised to the nation.

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP) — President Faud Chehab of Lebanon has told his Cabinet he doesn't intend to extend his 6-year term, which expires next year, the independent Beirut Daily Al Hayat reports.

The charge was dropped by Dist. Atty. Dee D. Miller of Potter County, Tex., Wednesday.

Maynard Wheeler, president of Commercial Solvents Corp., also had been charged in the case, but a court refused to allow Texas to extradite him from New York. Without Wheeler, it would have been impossible to prove the charge against Estes, the district attorney said.

The big organization of physicians raked the administration's plan in testimony prepared for the House Ways and Means Committee by its two top officers, President Edward R. Annis of Miami and President-Elect Norman A. Welch of Boston.

ESTIMATES HIGH COST

Annis said the proposal for hospital and nursing home benefits for the aged under social security would require an increase of one half of 1 percent, instead of one fourth, in the payroll tax of employers and employees. Testimony of administration witnesses themselves, he contended, establishes a higher figure.

The legislation now before the committee, which has no plan to act on it this year, contemplates a one-fourth of 1 percent increase and also enlarging the base of the tax from the present $4,800 per individual to $5,200. Administration witnesses have said this would mean an average increase of $12 a year per employed worker, and that no employee would have to pay as much more as $28.

But Annis contended that even the beginning costs had been underestimated.

CLAIMS ESTIMATES FALSE

Annis told the committee that arguments for the administration bill rest upon false assumptions—that debilitating illness is universal among those 65 and older, that such people are generally economically deprived and that therefore "a massive rescue operation by the federal government" is needed.

The facts, Annis said, are that about 10 million persons out of the 17.5 million 65 or older carry some sort of health insurance and that the existing Kerr-Mills law provides means for helping those who need assistance.

The committee was told Wednesday that the AMA President does not speak for all physicians.

More than 1,000 have told the Physicians Committee for Health Care of the Aged through Social Security that they endorse the principle of hospital care through social security, testified the chairman, Dr. Caldwell B. Esselstyn of Hudson, N.Y.

Two Cannons Gain Spots On BML Team; Warriors Place 2 On 2nd Squad

Two Biglerville High School players were named to the first all-star football team of the Blue Mountain League which was announced at the annual winter meeting held Wednesday evening at the Dutch Pantry, Camp Hill.

Bob Bream, end, and Jeff Horick, halfback, both Seniors, were placed on the select squad which was dominated by East Pennsboro which placed five.

Two Gettysburg lads, Bill Jones, end, and Joe Riley, gained second team honors.

Among those receiving honorable mention were: Gary Guise, Gettysburg, and Mike Thompson, Biglerville, tackles; Ken Kime, Gettysburg, guard; Charles Hess, Biglerville, center; Mike Kane and Fred Hartman, Biglerville, backs.

The players were selected by coaches who voted only for opponents.

ZEIGLER TOP CHOICE

Mike Zeigler, who quarterbacked East Pennsboro to its second straight title, was the top vote getter with 43.

Sixty-five persons, representing the 10 schools of the conference, attended the meeting. George Forney, athletic director, and Don Young, football coach, represented Gettysburg. Biglerville was represented by Charles L. Yost, Jack Emanuel, Donald Sterner and Parker Coble.

The football steering committee presented its 1965 schedule which was approved. Other schedules approved include the 1965 wrestling and basketball programs.

Recommendations submitted by the basketball committee, composed of Forney, Charles Yost, Biglerville, and Harry C. Jacobs, Shippensburg, were accepted, including the limiting of all junior varsity games to seven-minute quarters.

Also approved were the banning of bells, horns and drums at basketball games in conforming to recommendations of the PIAA and a proposal banning jayvee players from participating in varsity games after playing in a preliminary game.

It was announced the conference wrestling championships will be held at Big Spring, Newville, February 21 and 22.

The annual conference track meet was again scheduled for the Gettysburg College field and will be held Saturday, May 9.

WITHDRAW FROM BASEBALL

A letter from Biglerville asking withdrawal from the baseball league was read and approved. The lengthy trips involved in competing in the league was given for the request.

Biglerville has been accepted as a member of the Adams County League and will start participation in the 1964 season.

Trophies were presented to East Pennsboro for winning the 1963 football championship and to Big Spring, runnerup. Big Spring was also presented a trophy for winning last spring's baseball title.

The spring meeting will be held next March at the Dutch Pantry.

EDDIE WILSON IS PLAYER OF WEEK FOR AFL

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — Eddie Wilson, a bench warmer who never started a game until Hank Stram shook up his Kansas City club, was named The Associated Press's Player of the Week in the American Football League.

Wilson took over when Stram benched Len Dawson Sunday at Boston in a desperate attempt to shake the Chiefs out of their losing spin. They didn't lose, but they didn't win either, winding up with a 24-24 tie. It was the first time they hadn't lost in their last six games.

The 22-year-old former Arizona quarterback completed 20 of 32 passes for 258 yards and two touchdowns. He was not intercepted, and he did not panic under the Beantown Blitz from the Patriots.

OTHERS IN RUNNING

Trailing late in the final period, Wilson engineered a 71-yard drive in nine plays that climaxed with a 26-yard touchdown pass to Curt McClintion.

Lance Alworth, last week's star, caught four passes for 79 yards and one San Diego touchdown and George Blair kicked three field goals for the Chargers in a 23-13 victory over Buffalo. Blair's kicks were from 39, 15 and 41 yards, the last icing the game.

Dick Wood hit for two touchdowns while completing 16 of 34 for 249 yards for the New York Jets in their 14-9 decision over the Denver Broncos. Billy Joe

BARONS END BEAR STREAK

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Pittsburgh Hornets continue to crush the opposition in the American Hockey League.

They whipped the Quebec Aces 4-1 Wednesday night for their sixth straight victory and boosted their over-all record to 14-3, by far the best in the league.

The Cleveland Barons ended a four-game losing streak by drubbing the Hershey Bears 5-1 in Wednesday's other scheduled AHL game. It was the third straight victory for the Barons over Hershey this season and kept the Bears from taking undisputed possession of first place in the tight Eastern Division race.

ROUT AT HERSHEY

Three goals within 79 seconds in the second period broke wide open the Quebec-Hornets game at Pittsburgh. Floyd Smith rapped home the first at 15:34 to break a scoreless tie. Hank Ciesla tallied at 16:39 and Smith again at 16:53.

The goals were scored against goalie Gump Worsley, sent down by the Montreal Canadiens into condition after an injury. The Aces were short-handed at the time because defenseman John Hanna was serving a penalty for tripping.

Cleveland, trying to overhaul Pittsburgh in the Western Division, similarly turned its game at Hershey into a rout with a three-goal explosion in the third period. Bruce Cline gave Hershey a 1-0 lead in the first period, but the Barons dominated the play thereafter.

'76ERS UPSET N.Y. KNICKS

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Philadelphia 76ers, nee the Syracuse Nationals, haven't set the National Basketball Association on fire since the franchise was shifted to the Quaker City. Nevertheless Coach Dolph Schayes is confident his 76ers will make the playoffs by beating out the revived New York Knicks in the Eastern Division.

Beaten in two previous games by the Knicks, the 76ers turned the tables on the New Yorkers Wednesday night, 118-101, as Lee Shaffer and Hal Greer combined for 54 points. It was the first Philadelphia victory of the season over the Knicks and gave the 76ers a two-game lead over the team they must beat to make the playoffs.

The Detroit Pistons snapped a three-game losing streak by coming from behind to defeat the Cincinnati Royals 124-118 in Wednesday's other scheduled NBA game.

Dave Gambee suffered a possible fracture of the metatarsal bone in his left foot and may be lost to Philadelphia for a week or so.

Ralston Boosts Davis Cup Hopes

ADELAIDE, Australia (AP) — Dennis Ralston of Bakersfield, Calif., raised the Davis Cup hopes of the United States Thursday when he defeated Australian ace Roy Emerson in the semifinals of the South Australian Tennis Championships.

Ralston turned back the No. 1 ranked Australian 6-4, 2-6, 3-6, 6-2, 12-10 and will meet Australia's John Newcombe in the finals Sunday.

Eleven In Running For 'Gator Contest

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP) — The Gator Bowl listed 11 football teams today as still receiving prime consideration for the Dec. 28 game.

Joe Sykora, chairman of the selection committee, said they are: Pittsburgh, Alabama, Auburn, Mississippi, North Carolina, Georgia Tech, Louisiana State, Air Force, Nebraska, Penn State and Syracuse.

Schmidt, who has gone on to greater fame as an all-pro linebacker with the Detroit Lions, was the Pitt captain in 1955. Carver's comparison takes on even greater significance when one realizes that Joe Walton of the New York Giants and Mike Ditka of the Chicago Bears also followed in Schmidt's footsteps.

Martha, touted by Carver as the greatest Pitt back in 25 years, makes no secret of his admiration and respect for Grigaliunas.

FIRE RUINS LANES

BLACKWOOD, N.J. (AP) — A general alarm fire heavily damaged the Blackwood Bowling Lanes last night.

Firemen fought the blaze for about an hour before controlling it. Damage was greatest in the rear of the four-year-old structure.

Firemen said a short circuit in a pin splitter apparently touched off the fire.

The rookie fullback from Villanova, gained 105 yards for the Broncos in 20 carries in the mud at Bears Stadium.

Considering 11 For Gator Bowl

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP) — The Gator Bowl listed 11 football teams today as still receiving prime consideration for the Dec. 28 game.

Joe Sykora, chairman of the selection committee, said they are: Pittsburgh, Alabama, Auburn, Mississippi, North Carolina, Georgia Tech, Louisiana State, Air Force, Nebraska, Penn State and Syracuse.

Sykora said he hoped to have one team signed prior to the final big weekend of Nov. 30.

BEARS FACING STEELERS IN SUNDAY GAME

By JERRY LISKA

Associated Press Sports Writer
CHICAGO (AP) — The Chicago Bears' excellent pass defense gets challenged a second successive week by a former Bear bomber in Sunday's meeting with the dangerous Pittsburgh Steelers.

This time the Western Division leader of the National Football League must try to handcuff Ed Brown, who once shared Bear quarterbacking with Zeke Bratkowski, current Green Bay Packer reserve.

Zeke was something less than a ball of fire as he spelled starter John Roach late in last Sunday's stinging 26-7 Bear spanking of the Packers.

A BRISTLING PROBLEM
The remarkable Bear secondary which currently has no fewer than three men among the top seven NFL interception specialists filched three of Brat's 11 tosses.

The 34-year-old Brown figures to be a much more bristling problem for the Bears than Zeke rusty after a long Packer bench sojourn.

Brown, traded to the Steelers in 1962 after eight Bear seasons, is having his best year. His 255 attempts already surpass his greatest number of tosses in any full Bear season. He has completed 124, one shy of his most hits as a Bear—125 in 1959. His 14 touchdown shots exceed his total of 13 for that same season, his Bear career high.

Swept out of the Bear den with Bratkowski as Chicago got the Los Angeles Rams' Bill Wade, Brown will be itching to derail personally, or at least slow up, Chicago's divisional title quest.

Figures compiled by the National Collegiate Athletic Bureau disclosed today that the Spartans have one of the best defensive teams in the country, particularly against teams that move the ball on the ground.

Rushing happens to be Illinois' favorite mode of attack.

PITT CAPTAIN GIVEN CREDIT FOR BIG YEAR

By LOU PRATO

PITTSBURGH (AP) — If you're looking for a secret behind the sudden revival of Pitt as a major football power this year, you'd have to go further than the onfield exploits of Paul Martha and Fred Mazurek.

Martha, the speedy halfback, and Mazurek, the flashy quarterback, have grabbed the headlines for their clutch performances in boosting the Panthers to a 7-1 record and No. 5 ranking in the nation.

But the key to Pitt's success is a relatively unknown senior end named Al Grigaliunas, who serves as team captain. For without the leadership of the gummy Lithuanian immigrant, it's doubtful the Panthers would even be near a possible post-season bowl invitation.

ADMIRED BY MARTHA
"I don't think there's any question about his value to this team," said Frank Carver, the Pitt athletic director who has been appraising Pitt players since his undergraduate days in the 1930s. "He's the finest captain I've seen at Pitt since Joe Schmidt."

Schmidt, who has gone on to greater fame as an all-pro linebacker with the Detroit Lions, was the Pitt captain in 1955. Carver's comparison takes on even greater significance when one realizes that Joe Walton of the New York Giants and Mike Ditka of the Chicago Bears also followed in Schmidt's footsteps.

BUCKNELL IS TOUGH HURDLE FOR BLUE HENS

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Unbeaten Delaware clung to the top rung of the small college football ladder today, but there is a tough hurdle-Bucknell-ahead.

If Delaware can beat Bucknell, which threw an early season scare into Dartmouth, the Blue Hens will have a good shot at the small college championship, which will be awarded in next week's final poll.

Delaware whipped Rutgers 14-3 for its eighth straight win Saturday, and drew five of the eight first-place votes from a special panel of sports writers and broadcasters.

TOP 4 HOLD ON
Two votes went to Northern Illinois, which has completed its season with a 9-0 record. The other No. 1 vote went to Southwestern Texas.

Delaware collected 73 points, on a 10-9-8 — etc. basis, with Northern Illinois second with 70. Wittenberg had 44 for third and Massachusetts 35 for fourth.

The top four held their places. Florida A&M jumped from seventh to fifth, and McNeese State moved up a notch to eighth. The only newcomer to the Top Ten was Abilene Christian, 21-3 winner over Murray.

Slippery Rock fell out of the Top Ten after losing to West Chester, Pa., Teachers 36-7.

HOW THEY RANK
Northern Illinois, Wittenberg, Massachusetts and St. John's have completed their seasons.

The Top Ten, with first-place votes in parentheses, season records and points on a 10-9-8-7-6-5-4-3-2-1 basis:

1. Delaware	5	8 0 0 73
2. Northern Ill. 2	9	0 0 0 70
3. Wittenberg	8	0 1 44
4. Massachusetts	7	0 1 35
5. Florida A&M	6	1 0 34
6. St. John's, Minn.	8	0 0 32
7. South Dakota St.	7	1 0 23

ILLINOIS HAS PROBLEMS IN SPARTAN TILT

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
If statistics are an accurate gauge, Illinois is going to have its problems in its game against Michigan State Saturday for the Big Ten title and Rose Bowl bid.

Figures compiled by the National Collegiate Athletic Bureau disclosed today that the Spartans have one of the best defensive teams in the country, particularly against teams that move the ball on the ground.

Rushing happens to be Illinois' favorite mode of attack.

SPARTANS FOURTH
Although Mississippi is the national leader in total defense, having yielded only an average of 138.4 yards a game, Michigan State is fourth in the list and ranks No. 1 in rushing defense.

The Spartans have permitted an average of only 71.3 yards a game on the ground. They have permitted less than two yards—1.9 yards to be exact—on every rush, as an average.

Although fourth in total defense behind Mississippi, Southern Mississippi and Memphis State, the Michigan Staters with 171.5 yards yielded per game have the best record among teams that play a completely major schedule.

STINGY ON POINTS
The Spartans also have been stingy with points — permitting only 6.3 points a game. They're fourth nationally in this category.

Mississippi is the team leader in defense against scoring, with a .9 points a game given up, as well as over-all defense. Texas Western has the best pass defense, giving up only 40.1 yards a game through the air.

DEFENSIVE BACK
Cassady barely had agreed to take a job with the Ohio Youth Commission when the Lions pushed the panic button Wednesday. They signed him as a free agent and announced that Hopalong would finish the season as a defensive back.

The Lions secondary has been shredded by injuries to Yale Lary, Gary Lowe Dick (Night Train) Lane, and Dick Compton.

Cassady, a former All-American at Ohio State, was a Lion star for six years, working mainly out of the pass-catching flanker slot. Traded away, Cassady ran into bad luck. He suffered a broken leg with the Philadelphia Eagles last season and was cut from the squad earlier this year.

He has accepted an appointment with the Ohio Youth Commission as a $10,000-a-year administrative assistant and is expected to start on that job next month after finishing with the Lions.

The Lions had their own precedent for the Layne and Cassady moves. In 1959, they brought lineman Lou Creekmur out of retirement. And before the 1963 season began, retired kicker Jim Martin donned his old togs in Detroit. But he soon was shipped to Baltimore.

Perry is another retread still seeing action while bouncing in and out of the NFL. He's back with the San Francisco 49ers, the club he broke in with. Perry spent some time with Baltimore before returning to the 49ers.

Gugliemi quit when the New York Giants traded him to the 49ers. Then he signed with Philadelphia.

PSU STRESSES ITS DEFENSES
UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. (AP)—Penn State's football team continues to stress defense as it prepares for one of the nation's most deadly running and passing offenses—namely fifth ranked Pittsburgh.

After a one-hour workout Tuesday, backfield coach Joe Paterno said the Lion secondary needed practice because "if (Pitt quarterback Fred) Mazurek decides to pass like we want to try to be prepared."

On Monday, head coach Rip Engle tried to get his line into shape in hopes of stopping the plunges of Pitt fullback Rick Leeson and the sweeps of halfback Paul Martha.

Engle learned Tuesday that both of his first string tackles, Harrison Rosdahl and Terry Monaghan, definitely will miss the Pitt game because of injuries. Their status had been in doubt.

Midgets Unbeaten
In 54 Grid Games
OAKRIDGE, Tenn. (AP)—Unbeaten in 45 straight games . . . unscared on in this year's regular season play . . . titlists five consecutive years.

Oklahoma? Tennessee? No, that's the accomplishments of the Oak Ridge Boys Club midgets, a group of sub-high school players who compete in the Knoxville Recreation Bureau football program.

The Little Atoms have won the recreation championship five years in a row and in taking this season's title ran up 232 points to only seven for the opposition.

Diabetes can be controlled by diet alone, or if necessary by diet plus insulin or, in some cases, a compound taken by mouth.

Sayers' spurning of low-cuts may be a shock to other aspiring young speed-burners. Sayers wears old-fashioned high-tops, has ever since he hurt an ankle slightly in the opener against TCU.

Other old pros who came to mind are Ralph Gugliemi, Jim Martin, Joe Perry and Bobby Layne.

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Hugh Scott said today administration plans for the sale of surplus wheat to the Soviet bloc are based on "a policy of self-induced hypnosis."

The prospective deal represents a one-way concession by the United States at a time when "the Soviets have been turning up the cold war thermostat" in Berlin, and Cuba, the Pennsylvania Republican said in a prepared Senate speech.

"There seems to be a strangely erroneous feeling in our policy-making councils and elsewhere that the cold war is drawing to a conclusion, that we now peacefully coexist with the Communists," Scott said.

POLITICAL TINT

"There seems to be a lack of understanding among certain people that political considerations have overriding importance in all Kremlin decisions, whether it be a shipment of missiles to Cuba or the purchase of grain from the United States."

Scott said the wheat sale would bail the Soviets "out of their agricultural problems" and help them "keep their armament industry operating full blast."

Scott stopped short of opposing any kind of grain deal with the Communists. But if there is one, he said, it should be based on the law of supply and demand and not be backed by government credit.

Under President Kennedy's plan, Scott said, the wheat would be sold to the Soviet bloc at the regular world price which is below the domestic U.S. price.

In opposing the use of government credit to back the deal, Scott gave support to a bill introduced by Sen. Karl E. Mundt, R-S.D., now before the Senate Banking Committee.

The chairman, Sen. A. Willis Robertson, D-Va., told a reporter "chances are pretty good that a majority of the committee will support the measure."

On Wednesday, Secretary of the Treasury Douglas Dillon testified that enactment of the bill would kill the wheat deal.

This would be a costly mistake that might increase the unfavorable balance of trade by as much as $300 million and weaken the nation's gold position, he said.

HONOLULU (AP) — South Viet Nam's change in government won't affect the United States attitude in the troubled Southeast Asia country, the U.S. State Department says.

Reporting on Wednesday top-level meeting of diplomatic and military officials in Honolulu, Robert Manning assistant secretary of state for public affairs, said the meeting produced no proposals for major changes in U.S. policy in Vietnam. He said he sees "no changes in economic aid in the foreseeable future."

OFFICIALS MEET

The conference drew together Secretary of State Dean Rusk, Defense Secretary Robert McNamara; Henry Cabot Lodge, U.S. ambassador to South Viet Nam; Gen. Maxwell Taylor, head of the Joint Chiefs of Staff; Maj. Gen. Paul Harkins, head of the U.S. military advisory group in Viet Nam; Adm Harry D. Felt, Pacific military commander, and other top drawer civilian and military officials from Saigon, Washington, D.C., and Honolulu.

McNamara left Wednesday night for Washington immediately after the meeting to report to President Kennedy.

Manning's report described the day-long sessions as "more of a discussion than an arrival at a full set of finished decisions."

REPORT TO KENNEDY

He said the conference produced "the raw material recommendations" to be made to the President when McNamara, Rusk and Lodge arrive in Washington.

Rusk's return will be delayed by a visit with five other Communist members to Japan. Lo is expected to confer with President after his return Washington Friday.

A statement on the conference by Arthur Sylvester, assistant secretary of defense public information said in p

"In general, information received at the conference indicates an encouraging outlook for the principle of joint U.S.-Vietnamese policy in South Vietnam — that is, the successful prosecution of the war against the Viet Cong 'communists'."

There is no reason why it should not be," Felt replied.

IRAQ STUDENTS GRAB CONTROL OF EMBASSY

LONDON (AP) — More than 300 Iraqi students forced their way into the Iraqi Embassy here Wednesday and seized control of the entire building.

Almost all the embassy staff left as the students, chanting slogans against the Iraqi regime of President Abdel Salam Aref, moved in.

A student leader said: "We are staying in the embassy for as long as is necessary."

He said the students were demonstrating against "the Aref regime and the military dictatorship. We are supporting the Ba'ath party."

The students occupied all four floors at the embassy.

The switchboard operator there said the diplomatic staff of about 20 had left when the students forced their way in.

But one of the student leaders said the press attaché had stayed. "He is on our side," the student said.

The student spokesman said on the telephone:

"We are upstairs and downstairs. The embassy staff could not do anything with us. Somebody called the police after we had forced our way in. They tried to force us out, apparently had no right to, and they left."

While scores of students fanned through the buildings, dozens more squatted in the hall chanting pro-Ba'athist slogans. Aref ousted the Ba'ath socialist party from the government.

Outside the embassy a small group of London bobbies stood by, prevented from entering what was Iraqi territory.

SAIGON, Viet Nam. (AP) — South Viet Nam's new revolutionary government will establish a commission to investigate crimes committed during former President Ngo Dinh Diem's tenure of office.

The commission will be instructed, an announcement said, "to investigate all crimes committed by private persons or agents of public services who took advantage of their official position to arrest and detain people unlawfully, torture and rape, or murder nationalist elements opposed to the Diem dictatorship."

The period to be investigated will run from Oct. 26, 1955, when Diem was given supreme power by a referendum, to last Nov. 1, when he was overthrown by a military coup.

Stolen Container Has Lethal Powder

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Police are searching for a container holding lethal powder used in extermination work.

The police said they fear children may have taken it from a station wagon Wednesday.

The police said the powder, greyish-green in color, is made from a cyanide salt base. It could cause almost instant death if eaten or inhaled.

Police said the station wagon is owned by the General Sanitation Co.

Today In Washington

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS WASHINGTON (AP) — In the news from Washington:

SMOG ON THE HILL: Sen. Hubert Humphrey put a stethoscope to Congress and diagnosed that it is a victim of "a civil rights smog."

Humphrey, assistant Senate Democratic leader, said that once the battle over civil rights legislation is over, "the problems of managing the Congress will be over."

"Until that day," he warned Wednesday, "leaders can implore and deplore... but there will not be much improvement."

WHEEZING RACE

His implication was that Congress' wheezing pace is caused by maneuvering of Southern foes of civil rights legislation—many of them entrenched in key posts in Congress.

With time running out, there's little likelihood the measure will be acted on this year.

DISARMAMENT: The House approved Wednesday by a 252-133 vote a bill authorizing $10 million a year for the U.S. Disarmament Agency.

This is the same amount the Senate approved but only two-thirds of what the agency had requested.

Disarmament Agency chief William Foster had testified that such a slash in the agency's funds would mean a 40 per cent cut in its research contracts.

The bill goes back to the Senate where adoption is likely.

ALABAMA CHARGES: The Justice Department has charged Alabama officials to back up charges that department lawyers had concealed dope addicts, consorted with sex perverts, contributed to the delinquency of minors and fomented insurrection.

The allegations were communicated to the department in a telegram from Robert D. Wilkinson, foreman of the Dallas County (Selma, Ala.) grand jury investigating the Justice Department's activities in connection with racial strife in Alabama.

The grand jury plans to visit Washington Monday and question Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy.

Asst. Atty. Gen. Burke Marshall, chief of the department's Civil Rights Division, said in a telegram to Wilkinson and Circuit Solicitor Blanchard McLeod that "it is hard to believe these charges are seriously intended since no names, dates or other identifying data are given."

BLAZE RUINS MOVIE HOUSE

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP) — A general alarm fire broke out early today in a movie theater about 13 blocks south of Monday's disastrous hotel fire in this resort city.

The movie house, the Surf Theater, was closed for the night and empty when the alarm sounded at 1:32 a.m. Ten residents of apartments above the two-story, stucco theater, escaped from the building without injury, firemen said.

The flames, believed to have started in the projection room, were brought under control within a few hours. Fire Chief Warren Conover estimated damage at $50,000.

The theater, on Atlantic Avenue, is a block from Convention Hall.

Today's general alarm came less than 72 hours after the Surfside Hotel disaster that so far has claimed 12 known dead, with 13 more missing and 10 buildings destroyed.

Hoffa Lawyer Is Banned From Federal Court

By BARNEY BALLARD
Associated Press Staff Writer
NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — An attorney preparing James R. Hoffa's defense against jury-tampering charges has been accused of the same offense and barred from practicing in federal courts.

District judges William E. Miller and Frank Gray Jr. signed an order Wednesday night prohibiting Z. T. Osborn Jr. of Nashville from practicing in their courts. Officials said the order would bar the lawyer from all federal courts.

The judges accused Osborn, 43, of offering $10,000 through a middleman to a prospective juror if he would prevent conviction of Hoffa, president of the Teamsters Union.

NO COMMENT

Neither Osborn nor Hoffa could be reached for comment. Hoffa and six other men are to go on trial Jan. 6 on charges of attempting to influence jurors in Hoffa's trial in Nashville last year on charges of conspiring to violate the Taft-Hartley Act. Osborn, one of Nashville's leading lawyers, helped defend Hoffa in the 1962 trial.

Miller's memorandum said Osborn offered $5,000 through Nashville Policeman Robert D. Vick for the prospective juror, Ralph A. Elliott, if and when he was seated on the jury. The other $5,000 would be paid if Hoffa was not convicted.

WAS A RELATIVE

Elliott, a member of the district court panel of prospective jurors was said to be a relative of Vick's.

However, Elliott was not contacted and information obtained by Vick was turned over to federal authorities.

Judge Miller said Osborn appeared before the court last Friday, and added:

"His statements and answers on that occasion to the effect that he knew of no plan to improperly influence the jury in the forthcoming Hoffa trial and that he had engaged in no conversation with any person for the purpose of improperly influencing any prospective juror... were false and untrue."

Osborn was one of the lawyers in the Tennessee reapportionment case, in which the U.S. Supreme Court ruled that federal courts could require state legislatures to reapportion themselves.

SEEK BODIES IN ELEVATOR AREA OF HOTEL

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP) — The elevator area of the Surf side Hotel is where searchers concentrate today in the continuing hunt for bodies from Monday's fire disaster.

"We expect to find more bodies there, because that's the logical spot," said Detective Capt. Albert Wilson.

And as the search for bodies went on, so did the investigation into the cause of the widespread fire that left 28 surfside guests dead or unaccounted for and leveled five hotels, four homes and a rooming house along Maryland Avenue.

Police picked up a convicted arsonist and questioned him for three hours last night. The man, not identified, was released after agreeing to take a lie detector test.

WILL GET TEST

"We plan to give him the test, but we haven't determined when," said Detective Capt. William Rickert. Rickert told the man standing on a corner a block and a half from the rubble of the destroyed building Wednesday night. He also allegedly was seen by two bus drivers several blocks from the fire scene shortly after the first alarm was turned in.

Rickert, in charge of the investigation, said earlier that nothing had turned up "relative to arson at this time."

Three bodies were pulled from the debris of the Surfside Wednesday. This brought the count to 12 dead and 13 missing at the hotel. One two of the known dead have been identified—Mrs. Anna Shalit, 72, of Morristown, who died in Atlantic City Hospital on Monday, and Mayer Mackler, 74, of Camden, identified Wednesday from fingerprints.

Set Deadline For New Bridge Work

HARRISBURG (AP) — The Public Utility Commission set December, 1964 as the deadline for construction of a new bridge to carry Blackman Street over Lehigh Valley and Central Railroad tracks in Wilkes-Barre.

The PUC Wednesday directed the state Highways Department to build the bridge and assume $86,368 of the estimated $185,000 cost. The remaining cost would be shared by Luzerne County ($28,000), Lehigh Valley ($27,200 Central) ($24,700) and the city ($19,300).

PLAINS HIT BY COLD WAVE

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The season's coldest weather spread across the Northern Rockies and Western Plains today but it was fairly mild in most other parts of the nation.

Below - zero temperatures chilled many sections of Montana as the cold air from Canada spread across most parts of the state, southward into Wyoming and eastward into the western Dakotas.

Temperatures edged toward zero in some areas outside Montana. One of the coldest spots was Cut Bank, Mont., with 11 below.

Light snow fell in the cold air but no severe storms were reported. More than eight inches of snow was reported in West Yellowstone, Mont., and up to a foot covered the Kalispell region in northwestern Montana.

The cold belt penetrated many areas from the northwestern Great Lakes region southward to northern Iowa and northern Nebraska and into the Dakotas and northeastern Wyoming.

JURY PONDER MURDER CASE

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — A quarter sessions court jury of six men and six women weighed the fate today of convicted slayer Frank J. Ellsworth of Omaha, Neb.

The jury returned a verdict Wednesday night of first degree murder against Ellsworth for the 1955 robbery and slaying of Mrs. Lulubel Rossman.

Judge Eugene V. Alessandro then ordered the jury locked up for the night before reconvening today to fix the sentence of either life imprisonment or death by electrocution.

It was the second first-degree murder conviction for Ellsworth. He was sentenced to life imprisonment after the first one.

Three other men were also convicted in earlier trials and are serving life sentences.

OTTAWA (AP)—Prime Minister Fidel Castro's government is going to ask the death penalty for two Canadian pilots, Prime Minister Lester B. Pearson told the House of Commons Wednesday.

11 Cult Members Convicted For Harboring AWOL Marine

EAST ST. LOUIS, Ill. (AP)—Eleven members of John R. Harrell's anti-Communist church movement were convicted Wednesday night for their roles in their cult's giving refuge to a fugitive marine from Greenville, Pa.

Each defendant was tried in U. S. District Court on five counts. Six men were found guilty on three counts, and the rest were convicted on two counts.

Judge William H. Juergens gave the defense 15 days in which to file for a new trial. Bonds under which the defendants were released prior to the trial were continued unchanged.

The jury of seven women and five men returned its verdict after nearly six hours deliberation. The government charged the defendants wrongfully refused to yield the Marine to FBI agents at Harrell's estate in Louisville, Ill., headquarters of his Christian Conservative Church.

CONSPIRING CHARGES

Lester H. Kellums, his son James, Charles Childers, Eugene Densmore, Arthur Leib, and his son Harold, were convicted of conspiracy to harbor a deserter, resisting federal officers and conspiracy to thwart federal officers.

The Rev. A. Vance Comer, Carl Stanley, Lloyd W. Stanley, James Gillard and Joseph T. Ladley were convicted of conspiracy to harbor and conspiracy to thwart officers.

Maximum penalties are five years and $10,000 for conspiracy to harbor, six years and $5,000 for conspiracy to thwart officers, and 10 years and $10,000 for resisting federal officers.

The case against the 11 followers of Harrell's anti-Communist cult went to the jury after a week of testimony.

The 11 men Harrell and a 12th follower were seized at the cult's Clay County retreat in August 1961 during a raid by FBI agents, who captured Marine Pvt. Dion Davis, a fugitive from Camp Lejeune, N.C. Davis is from Greenville, Pa.

COLONY DISPERSES

Harrell, 41, and seven members of his family vanished March 31 as his colony dispersed to homes and new bases in other states.

His failure to appear for trial with the 12 men led to a federal warrant for his arrest. One of the defendants, R. L. Murie of Long Beach, Calif., pleaded guilty last week to a charge of harboring a deserter and will be sentenced later.

Many of the 44 government witnesses were asked to describe their roles in the 1961 raid on the fortified Harrell estate, where the cult was organized in 1960.

All defendants testified. Some of them said Harrell planned to surrender Davis to avoid further debate with federal officers, but did not act soon enough to head off the raid.

The defendants said their colony was fortified and armed against vandals and most against authorities. Many said they thought at first the raiders were a local mob.

RUSSIAN JETS DOWN UNARMED IRANIAN PLANE

TEHRAN, Iran (AP)—Three Soviet jet fighters shot down an unarmed Iranian plane 18 miles inside Iranian territory after it accidentally strayed into the Soviet Union, official government reports said today.

Two aerial survey officials aboard the plane were killed and the pilot was seriously injured.

The plane, on a photographic mission in connection with a land redistribution project in northeast Iran, lost its way Wednesday and flew into Soviet territory, the reports said.

The reports said the Soviet jets ordered the plane to land on a Soviet air strip. The pilot, however, found he was short of fuel and flew back into Iranian territory, the reports added.

BLAZES, EXPLODES

The three jets then reportedly followed the Iranian plane and fired on it near Dargahaz, in Iran. The plane was reported to have caught fire and exploded in the air.

The plane was downed while Soviet President Leonid Brezhnev was in Iran on an official visit.

News of the incident spread through the Iranian Parliament today as Brezhnev addressed a joint session on improved Iranian-Soviet relations. The president said the Soviet government and people are greatly satisfied with the removal of the "dangers" from their relations with the Soviet government.

The downed plane was a twin-engine, piston-driven civilian craft belonging to the Iranian Air Taxi Co.

JFK DEFINES NEW FRONTIER AS BIPARTISAN

By JACK BELL

Associated Press Staff Writer
SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP)—

President Kennedy depicted his administration's New Frontier scientific program today as a bipartisan approach to the future which would benefit all mankind.

The Democratic President said in a speech prepared for dedication of the Aerospace Medical Health Center at Brooks Air Force Base that the "New Frontiers" slogan which helped him with the presidency in 1960 "is not the exclusive property of either Democrats or Republicans."

NATION'S POSITION

"It refers instead," he said, "to this nation's position in history today — to the fact that we stand on the edge of a new era filled with both crises and opportunities, an era to be characterized by both grim challenges and historic achievements."

This unusual bipartisanship on the part of the President seemed to reflect considerable administration worry about what is going on in Texas. The state will cast 25 electoral votes, slightly less than one-tenth of the 270 total Kennedy would need for re-election in 1964.

JOHNSON VISITS TEXAS

Riding another plane, Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson and his wife accompanied the Kennedys to the Lone Star State for a first-hand look at voter reaction to the Kennedy legislative program — including civil rights — and how the President is handling foreign affairs.

The President planned to fly tonight to Houston, where he was scheduled to speak at an "appreciation" dinner for Rep. Albert Thomas, D-Tex.

In his remarks at the medical center, Kennedy seemed to be answering those in Congress who think too much money is being shot off toward the moon in the space program.

The Senate voted Wednesday to trim $90 million from the program, reducing the total to the $5.1 billion previously approved by the House.

MURDER TRIAL DOORS CLOSED

YUMA, Ariz. (AP)—Justice of the Peace Herman Frauenfelder ordered the doors closed today in the preliminary hearing of four Yuma youths charged with the fatal beating of John Eyer of Hellam, Pa.

The hearing started Wednesday and Frauenfelder closed the doors to the press and public at the request of both prosecution and defense attorneys.

Charged with murder are Jerry Hillyer, 20, Robert Hoffman, 20, Roger Castleton, 18, and Richard Mellor, 17. Eyer, a 25-year-old sailor was killed Nov. 4 during a robbery. His body was found alongside a road on the outskirts of Yuma.

Wednesday the justice of the peace denied a defense motion to exclude County Atty. Jeff Richards from the hearing. Richards, who has been called as a defense witness, said he did not plan to appear as a prosecution witness.

Fugitive Is Found In Florida Jail

PENSACOLA, Fla. (AP)—search for escapee Raymond James, 23, has ended.

The Negro slipped away two months ago during a recess of his trial on escape and criminal assault.

Officers located him Wednesday while checking fingerprint records. He had been in the county jail here for seven weeks after being picked up on a burglary charge.

SCA SEARCHES SEA FOR LOST WEATHERPLANE

OMAHA, Neb. (AP)—An air and sea search was underway today for a WU2 weatherplane which Strategic Air Command headquarters reported lost 40 miles northwest of Key West, Fla., while returning Wednesday from a routine reconnaissance mission.

A SAC spokesman said it was believed a mechanical failure brought on the crash and that a pilot in the area had seen an oil slick a few minutes later.

There was some speculation that the plane might have been on a reconnaissance mission over Cuba but both SAC and the Defense Department at Washington said there was no evidence that hostile action was involved in the plane's disappearance.

A WU2, a Pentagon spokesman said, is a weather plane version of the famed U2 photographic reconnaissance planes that fly high over Cuba keeping check on military construction and movements.

NAVY DIRECTS SEARCH

Search for the plane was being directed at Key West by the commander of Navy forces there.

The plane was piloted by Capt. Joe G. Hyde Jr., 33, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe G. Hyde Sr., of Lagrange, Ga. His wife is the former Marianne Gerdes of Leland, Miss.

SAC said the plane disappeared from land-based radar scopes at 10:32 a.m. Eastern Standard Time. The disappearance was made public about nine hours later.

The only WU2 unit assigned to SAC is the 4080th, operating out of Davis Monthan AFB, Tucson.

Only last month — on the anniversary of the U.S.-Soviet Cuban crisis — it was disclosed that the high-soaring glider-like U2s were still flying reconnaissance missions over Cuba.

It was photographs taken by U2s which first showed definitely that the Soviet Union was setting up offensive missile bases on the island.

The U2 broke into the news with international impact in May 1960 when U.S. U2 pilot Francis Gary Powers was downed over Russia and imprisoned 21 months.

New Plane Takes Off Vertically

FT. BENNING, Ga. (AP)—A strange-looking jet airplane developed under a $2.5-million Army contract took off vertically and then leveled off into normal flight in a demonstration here.

Lockheed-Georgia's new "Hummingbird" can hover like a helicopter or move sideways. It has no propellers. It was shown in its first complete take-off-to-landing operation Wednesday.

Powered by two turbojet engines, the 32-foot-long plane has climbed to 10,000 feet in 58 seconds.

QUAKERS TELL OF HEAVY LOSS IN CASTROLAND

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Inundated farmlands, carcasses of dead livestock, homes destroyed bridges out—this was the grim picture painted Wednesday by a team of Quakers just back from a journey through the hurricane ravaged areas of Cuba.

"There were still indications of enormous flooding," John Page Hoover, a retired foreign service officer from Washington, D.C., said at a news conference. "We were told that there had been between 1,200 and 1,500 deaths and some 200,000 head of livestock drowned," he related. Hoover, along with Frank J. Hunt, of Moylan, Pa., a staff member of the America Friends Service Committee (AFSC), Hiram A. Hilty, a teacher from Greensboro, N.C., and George A. Perera, a Scarsdale, N.Y., physician, took relief supplies valued at about $100,000 from the AFSC to the Cuban Red Cross for distribution.

VISIT 19 DAYS

The team spent 19 days traveling by jeep through the areas in Oriente Province which were most heavily damaged by Hurricane Flora last October.

All agreed that although the devastation was widespread, the Cubans were "pulling together" and making a "quick recovery." They told of the revival of the sugar cane and rice crops in particular. There are shortages and rationing, Hilty said, but he stressed it was "a far cry from the pangs of starvation" mentioned in some reports.

Youth Sells Steer Champ For $775

TIMONIUM, Md. (AP) — A Pennsylvania youth will be paid more than $775 for his entry in the Eastern National Livestock Show at the Maryland State Fairgrounds.

John Frey, 16, of Quarryville, Pa., showed the 4-H champion steer, a 1,035-pound Aberdeen Angus. John C. Heinz of Baltimore bought it Wednesday for 75 cents a pound.

The grand champion barrow, exhibited by Pennsylvania State University, sold for $2.05 a pound to Schuldberg-Kurdle Co. It weighed 195 pounds.

The same company bought the grand champion steer, bidding $2.06 a pound for the Aberdeen exhibited by Doris and Shirley Brown of Tigerville, S.C.

Mrs. Jay Cooke Is Robbed Of Jewels

BLUE BELL, Pa. (AP)—Police searched for clues today in the burglary of the Montgomery County estate of Mrs. Jay Cooke widow of the financier.

Police said some $4,400 worth of furs and jewelry were stolen from the home early Tuesday morning when thieves forced open a bathroom window. They took a $3,500 diamond brooch, a $900 mink stole and a .38-caliber revolver, according to Whitpain Township Police Chief Early Kelly.

He said the barking of the family dog prevented the thieves from getting more.

Mrs. Cooke, whose husband died last July 10, was in Harrisburg at the time.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The administration's medical care program is needed to help persons receiving small social security pensions, Rep. Elmer Holland, D-Pa., said Wednesday in urging the House Ways and Means Committee to approve the plan. Holland said that by supporting the administration program, he was not advocating replacement of the so-called Kerr-Mills Act which provides increased aid to elderly welfare recipients for medical and hospital care.

Congo Prepares To Expel Soviet, Czech Diplomats

By ROBIN MANNOCK
Associated Press Staff Writer
LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo (AP) — Premier Cyrille Adoula is preparing to break diplomatic ties with the Soviet Union and Czechoslovakia and expel their diplomats from the Congo, government sources said today.

The sources said Adoula would shortly publish documents, seized from two Soviet diplomats arrested Tuesday, which showed deep involvement of the two Communist countries in subversion in the Congo.

LETTERS PREPARED

The sources said expulsion letters to the Russians and the Czechs were being readied by the Foreign Ministry. The final decision on when to deliver them is up to Adoula, they added.

Soviet Embassy officials reported that a Russian newspaperman was arrested at his hotel Wednesday night. He was Benik Beknazar - Juzbachev, correspondent of the Soviet Novosti news agency who arrived recently in Leopoldville.

The Soviet officials said they still had received no news of the two diplomats who were dragged from their car and arrested two days ago.

CARRIED DOCUMENTS

The two, embassy counselor Boris Voronin and press attache Yuri Miakotnykh, were arrested on their return from Brazzaville, capital of the neighboring Congo Republic, where extremist opponents of the Adoula regime are setting up a "Congolese government in exile."

Adoula and his Cabinet Wednesday night examined documents taken from the two Russians. Well-informed sources said they included letters from Christophe Gbenye, leader of the extreme nationalist followers of the late Patrice Lumumba.

ASKED COUNTERFEIT BILLS

These sources said the letters included a request for five billion Congo francs — about $27 million — in counterfeit bills to be used to destroy confidence in the Congo's currency.

Another letter reportedly asked the Russians to investigate links between Communist China and followers of former Vice Premier Antoine Gizenga, whose separatist regime in Stanleyville had Soviet support and recognition.

Bhenye and several Gizenga leaders are among the Congolese politicians who have southe the protection of Brazzaville's left-leaning provisional government.

Miakotnykh, who has been extremely active in extremist circles, was known to have been in recent contact with Gbenye in Brazzaville, well-informed circles said.

"PROJECT 20" RECALLS FIGHT TO SAVE KOREA

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer
NEW YORK (AP)—It looked like a war and 54,000 Americans died in it, but the fighting in Korea was called a limited or police action.

For 90 minutes Wednesday night NBC's "Project 20" production of "That War in Korea" recalled the inconclusive struggle against the communists in the terrible terrain and tough climate of Korea.

The precise narration and the film were blended carefully to explain the background, recalling the defeats, the suffering and the victories between June 1950 and the ceasefire 10 years ago. And it showed pictures of American soldiers today still patrolling the border between South Korea and the Communist north.

FINE DOCUMENTARY

It was a fine documentary about war that was not a war followed by a peace that is not a peace.

NBC followed the program with another story about Communist conflict. This was a rather off-beat drama of the "Espionage" series. The scene was set 10 years in the future, and the plot hunt on an action by U.S. CIA agents who deliberately undermined the government of an African nation whose leader is a Marxist.

The play was a muddled, static affair consisting mostly of long impassioned speeches on truth, idealism and integrity by a crusading columnist and a statesman-like U.S. ambassador to the United Nations.

"I'm not sure, but I think truth, idealism and integrity lost out to the necessity of keeping the nation from getting into Communist hands."

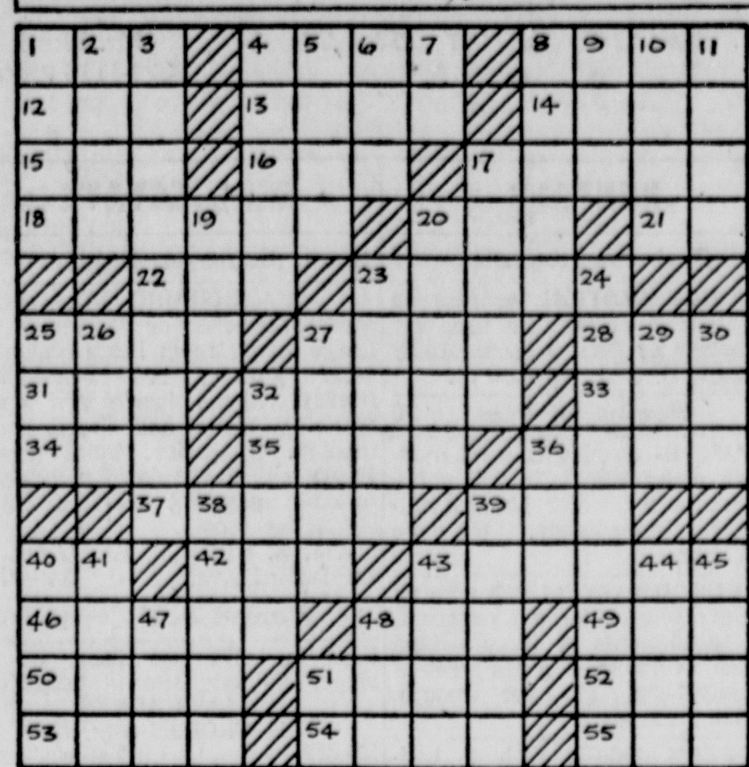

NBC and the Revue Studios started production in Hollywood this week on what the network calls the first full-length film feature ever made expressly for television — a two-hour action story, "Johnny North," designed to be one of a weekly anthology series next season.

The expensive shows will be written to accommodate interruptions for commercials and to fit neatly into the schedule's rigid time period.

Prof. Frederick C. Barghoorn, released by Soviet authorities this week after arrest in Moscow on espionage charges, will be interviewed on CBS' "Face the Nation" Sunday.

Washington is nearer to Moscow than to Buenos Aires.

teacher's salary from $5,800 to $6,400. Pay scales for state college faculty members were also raised, to a $5,680 minimum for instructors. Professors will receive a $12,400 maximum.

The legislation provides for establishing a new state board of education, comprised of 17 members to be appointed by the governor for six-year terms each. The terms will be staggered so only a portion of the board will change each year.

LARGER DISTRICTS

He described the new school reorganization program, replacing Act 561, which will bring about enlargement of many school districts.

Community colleges may be established under new legislation by any local municipality, board of school directors, etc., upon approval by the state board of education. The state legislation provides that 70 per cent of the schools must be technical, and only 30 per cent may be liberal arts. For each $1,000 cost under the community college plan, the state will pay one-third, the local sponsors one-third and the student one-third.

With approval given by the voters this month, the Higher Education Assistance Authority is being formed to provide loans of up to $1,000 per year to college students. The legislation appropriated $500,000 for the purpose this year. The loans will be made by individual banks with the state guaranteeing repayment of the loans. Thus, "for every $1,000 available to the agency, $5,000 or $10,000 can be loaned." There will be no interest on the loans while the student is in school and he will repay the amount within five years after graduation.

BETTER INCENTIVES

Legislation was passed providing bigger incentives for establishment of vocational - technical schools for out-of-school youth and adults. The state will pay 50 per cent of building and equipment, and provide reimbursement of from $35 to $70 per pupil.

The legislature also appropriated $970,000 to establish and operate educational television; passed laws permitting sabbatical leaves for school superintendents, assistant superintendents, etc., and provided for a change in the school fiscal year to coincide with the state and local governmental fiscal years.

Provision was made for the placing of socially and emotionally disturbed children in institutions with the local school districts paying 25 per cent of the cost and the state paying 75 per cent.

Mrs. Donald Hudson, second vice president of the AAUW, presided at the meeting in the absence of the president, Mrs. William Lott.

Named as the nominating committee were Mrs. Franklin Biggam, Mrs. Basil Crapster and Mrs. Lena Fortenbaugh. They will submit nominees for president, corresponding secretary and treasurer in January.

NEW YORK (AP)—Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller, after a long meeting with Pennsylvania Gov. William W. Scranton today, announced that he will not enter the Pennsylvania primary election.

Scranton, who is known to prefer no battle for Pennsylvania's 64 Republican national convention votes, conferred with Rockefeller here for an hour and 20 minutes.

Scranton said he will seek a similar pledge from Sen. Barry Goldwater, R-Ariz., undeclared front-running candidate for the GOP nomination next year.

and the Holy Ghost." Amendments framed by the council's liturgical commission were submitted to the council today. The key amendment permitted the use of modern languages throughout the sacraments. It was approved by a vote of 1,848 to 245, with two null ballots.

Once the amendments were cleared away, the council gave final approval to the liturgy schema's chapter on sacraments 2,107 to 35, with one null.

The schema does not order general use of modern languages, but permits national and regional conferences of bishops to authorize the language substitutions in their own areas.

Wednesday the council gave final approval to the liturgy schema chapter on the Mass. But Latin was retained for the heart of the Mass.

KENNEDYS OFF TO TEXAS FOR 1964 REASONS

By JACK BELL
Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy set out for Texas today to spread some political oil on troubled Democratic waters.

His big jet plane took off from Andrews Air Force Base, Md., heading for a state where his victory margin was only around 2 per cent in 1960 and storm winds are now blowing within his own party. Texas casts 25 vital electoral votes in 1964.

Accompanied by his wife, who has shown little enthusiasm as First Lady for such forays, the President will intersperse some personal poll - taking into a scheduled five speeches, two receptions and a night at Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson's ranch.

The vice president is accompanying the chief executive, flying in a separate plane. He and Mrs. Johnson will be hosts to the presidential party at their LBJ Ranch near Austin Saturday night.

Kennedy opens his Texas tour with the dedication of the aerospace center, near San Antonio, where he's expected to plug for support of the nation's space program. Flying on to Houston, he speaks tonight at an "appreciation" dinner for Rep. Albert Thomas, D-Tex.

After three days of mingling with Democrats of every stripe and even a few Republicans, Kennedy can expect to have a more accurate assessment of the reaction of voters in this sprawling segment of the no-longer Solid South to his civil rights proposals, his general legislative program and his handling of world affairs.

The party division over civil rights is illuminated by the fact that Gov. John Connally, who arranged the presidential trip initially, opposes the President's civil rights legislative package.

Johnson and Sen. Ralph Yarborough, D-Tex., who don't agree on much else, support it. This includes the controversial section to enforce desegregation on businesses serving the public. Yarborough is running hard for renomination. He suspects Johnson would like to torpedo him.

How much the civil rights push will affect the Kennedy-Johnson ticket in Texas next year remains a large and unanswered question. Texas has only slightly less than one-tenth of the 70 electoral votes the President needs to win re-election. He carried the state by only 46,000 of 2.3 million votes in 1960.

BEAR HUNTING

HARRISBURG (AP) — The Pennsylvania Game Commission forecasts good hunting for the week-long black bear season that opens Monday.

The commission said Wednesday surveys indicate more than 1,300 black bears available, but game protectors were doubtful that the harvest would equal the 15-year record kill of 554 set in 1962.

They said food supplies are not as abundant this year, causing the bears to roam farther from the natural haunts.

AP Correspondent Paints Vivid Word Picture Of United States Image In Asia

EDITOR'S NOTE — What is the image of the United States in Asia? Where does America stand in the eyes and minds of people in the teeming lands of the East? AP Special Correspondent William L. Ryan has just completed a six-week swing through seven Asian nations, interviewing high officials and the man in the street. This dispatch, first of a series of three, reports his findings as they concern the position of the United States.

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
AP Special Correspondent
TOKYO (AP) — The Indian politician stopped suddenly in the midst of a torrent of complaints about Americans, as if rocked by a sudden idea.

He fixed me with a puzzled stare, then punched a finger in to my chest.

"ROTTEN BRITISH"

"Why," he demanded, "can't you Americans be more mature and rotten, like the British?"

He had been bemoaning American "imperialism," alleged American bungling in Asia, and the behavior of Americans at home, especially with regard to the Negro problem.

One got the impression that deep down, he really missed the British "imperialists" who, to him, were mature enough to set matters right without apology or timidity, and "rotten enough in the old days not to care too much about how they did it."

The American image in Asia has been badly damaged by U.S. integration troubles. But it suffers in other ways, too. The United States often is in the position of being the best liked and least respected of the big powers.

SEE FUTURE HOPE
Asia is a continent of boiling contradictions. What the United States does for one country can outrage another. What Americans do at home can puzzle and confuse Asian intellectuals who may have viewed the United States as an example and a hope for their own future.

What is the U.S. image in Asia? It is many images, good and bad. The bad are more important so far as American goals are concerned.

Generally, Americans are well liked and the United States is admired. But these things must be qualified.

To Asian intellectuals, the United States is an enormously powerful nation with an awesome arsenal of weapons. It has achieved great things at home. The young intellectual has a feeling of disappointment, even disillusion and outrage, when he believes that the United States has bungled in the continent or tarnished itself at home.

U.S. IS WATCHED
The United States is watched the way a teen-ager might watch a movie idol—jealously, critically.

Everywhere I went in Asia was questioned about Negroes in the United States.

In one capital, a high-ranking government official told me, not bitterly but in wonder, how he was refused service in a Washington restaurant.

A Vietnamese said, "President Diem treated our Buddhists badly. But have you treated your Negroes any better?"

The only answer one can give is that the U.S. government is trying to do something about it. The answer is inadequate. The question comes back, "But what makes Americans that way?"

U.S. BEST LIKED
In India, samplings indicate that the United States is by far the most liked of the world's developed nations. In Thailand, the people seem to get along famously with everyday Americans, even though Thailand's government sometimes seems annoyed with Washington.

In Pakistan, whose government has been engaged in applying pinpricks to the U.S. hide, anti-Americanism can be whipped up fairly easily by a controlled press. It is not real. It is a maneuver of Pakistan's military ruler, angered by U.S. arms aid to India, and play on nationalistic feelings and Pakistani terror of India.

There remains much that Asians criticize. They tell you they are bewildered by the prospect of American policy shifting from month to month — now calling for democracy, now backing a harsh military dictator.

The most frequent complaint about the United States from Asians is this:

"You just don't understand us."

Tomorrow: The Soviet image in Asia.

Today In Washington

WASHINGTON (AP) — In the news from Washington:

KENNEDY TRIP: Accompanied by his wife, President Kennedy plans to make five speeches and attend two receptions during a busy "nonpolitical" trip to Texas today and Friday.

The Kennedys will spend Friday night at the ranch of Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson at Johnson City — near Austin.

White House press secretary Pierre Salinger said he expects Mrs. Kennedy to attend most of the President's engagements.

FLYING SOUTH

Today, Kennedy is scheduled to fly to San Antonio for a speech, then proceed to Houston to address a testimonial dinner that night for Rep. Albert Thomas, D-Tex.

After the dinner, Kennedy will fly to Fort Worth for a breakfast speech Friday. He also plans a mid-day address at Dallas and an evening speech to a $100-a-plate Democratic fund-raising dinner at Austin.

While in Austin, the President will attend two receptions, one by the Democratic State Committee and the other by Gov. John Connally.

The Kennedys plan to return to Washington sometime Saturday.

Salinger said the Democratic National Committee was picking up the tab for the Austin leg of the trip, since that includes allegedly political activities.

BUDGET: New federal spending will show a smaller increase than in recent years when the new budget is sent to Congress in January, Budget Director Kermit Gordon predicts.

Gordon declined to estimate the fiscal 1965 budget in an appearance before the Senate Finance Committee Tuesday but said it would contain "a very modest increase."

Administration sources have indicated it might be in the $101-billion to $102-billion range, compared with the $98.8-billion budget President Kennedy sent Congress last January.

Gordon testified in support of the House-passed bill to establish a temporary $315-billion debt ceiling for the remainder of this fiscal year. The present $309-billion limit expires Nov. 30.

November 11 was first proclaimed a holiday in the United States by Woodrow Wilson. The observance in 1919 established a tradition of wreath-laying, speeches and parades.

Police Use Dogs To Locate Stills

SUFFOLK, Va. (AP) — Suffolk police are trying to nose out the city's bootleggers.

The police have two dogs they claim can sniff corn squeezings as fast as a sirlon steak.

Aided by the dogs Suffolk officers raided a building which they suspected contained illegal corn liquor. The police got there just behind a man with a jug.

"How did you know I was going to get here just now with the stuff?" he asked police.

"Don't you know these dogs can smell liquor?" an officer asked him.

Police Chief Lawrence Butler said he got three telephone calls the next night asking him if the dogs really could smell moonshine.

"Of course they can," he said. "If they can smell footprints you know they can smell that strong stuff."

"Oh, Lawdy," said one, "now I'm gonna have to move out of the county."

Portugal Determined To Keep African Territories

By GEORGE ARFELD
LISBON, Portugal (AP) —
Braced by its conviction of holding historical and moral rights over its African territories, Portugal today is more determined than ever to hold on to those lands, comprising an area roughly 23 times the size of the mother country.

Running parallel to the ideology surrounding Portugal's presence in Africa lies the unquestionable fact that its two greatest territories are veritable fountains of riches that have been but lightly tapped.

Angola in the West, and Mozambique in the East are the two main territories in Africa. Their wealth has never been totally measured but potentially they can be compared to Brazil, a former Portuguese colony in South America.

OTHER AREAS

Other Portuguese lands in Africa include Portuguese Guinea, a Switzerland-sized wedge of muggy lowlands between Senegal and Guinea, and the islands of Cape Verde and Sao Tome.

Angola is the richest of Portugal's "provinces" in Africa. It has been the apple in Lisbon's eye since its first explorers landed in the Congo, 450 years ago, searching for Prester John's legendary empire.

Extending 1,000 miles along the West Coast of Africa, from the mouth of the Congo River to the arid wastes of Southwest Africa, Angola is rich in oil, diamonds, coffee, sugar, tobacco and cotton. Its shores yield respectable amounts of fish and many of its swift rivers are waiting to be harnessed.

ANGOLA IS VITAL

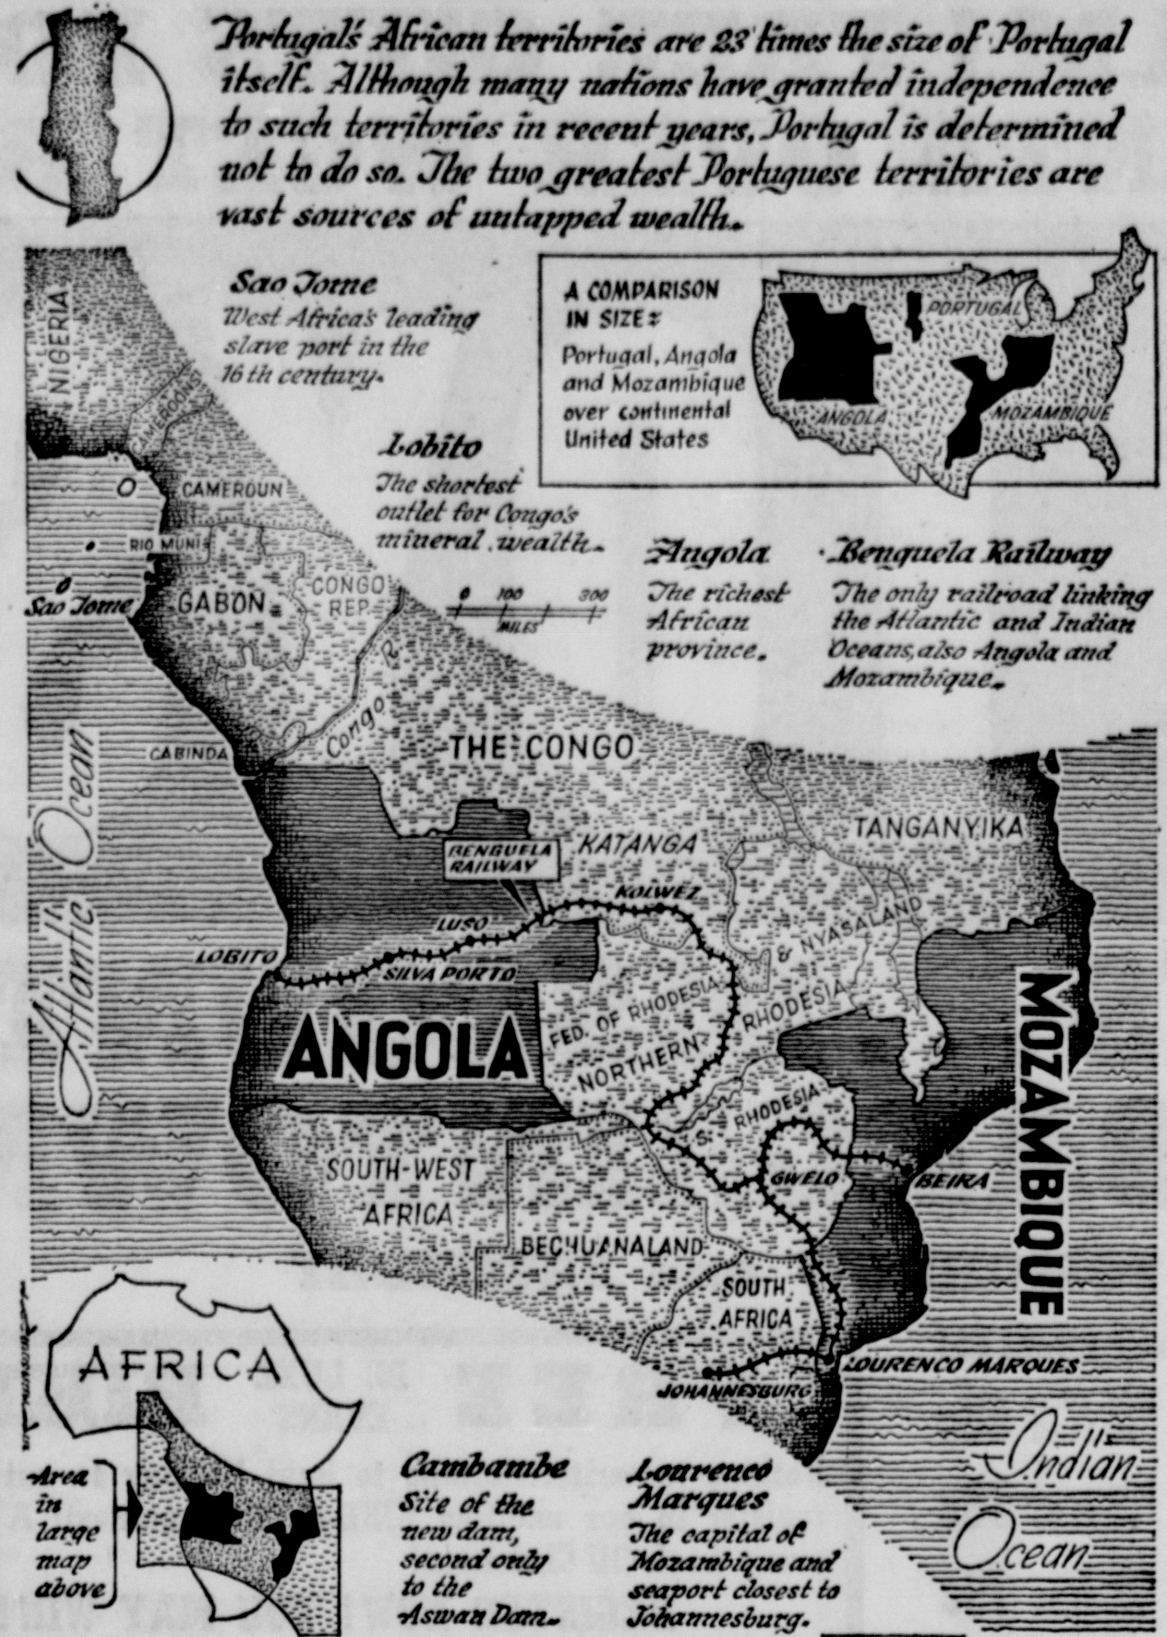

Standing squarely in the Congo's way to the sea, Angola also plays a vital part in the development and extraction of Katanga's vast mining riches.

The British-owned Benguela Railway runs from the port of Lobito into the heart of the Congo-Katanga mining district. It is the shortest outlet for copper, aluminum, manganese, cobalt, zinc and iron ores of the region. Long trains move daily from Katanga to Lobito, hauling hopper after hopper full of minerals.

The Benguela Railway is also the Western railroad for the only rail facility linking the Atlantic and Indian Oceans. The Eastern end is in Mozambique, also Portuguese territory.

Control of this railroad, plus virtual possession of the Congo river's mouth — it flows into the Atlantic between the Angolan mainland and the Cabinda enclave to the north — gives Portugal a unique position to control Congolese traffic.

Angola's Atlantic coast also

Portugal's African territories are 23 times the size of Portugal itself. Although many nations have granted independence to such territories in recent years, Portugal is determined not to do so. The two greatest Portuguese territories are vast sources of untapped wealth.

renco Marques or Beira, the latter connected by rail to Salisbury, Southern Rhodesia.

LEADING ROLE

Mozambique is believed to be about to assume a leading role in the Portuguese economic world, as large oilfields are said to have been discovered there. Added to Angola's mounting output — 337,227 tons last year — it could make Portugal self-sufficient in petroleum.

Lisbon is soft-peddling excited reports from Lourenco Marques on oil finds. Homeland papers have had reports on the topic censored. Reasons for this have not been offered, but certain observers assumed there is unwillingness to stir up competition for the development of these oilfields, now being tapped by an American (Gulf) outfit.

South African tourism also contributes considerable amounts to the Mozambique coffers. Large deposits of coal, iron, copper and titanium ores have been mapped but remain virtually untouched.

The majority of its 6.6 million people scratch out a living from agriculture and raising cattle.

Other possessions of Portugal in Africa are little known and less publicized. Guinea grows some rice for local consumption. It exports ivory, wax and hides

LIPPI FOUND GUILTY AFTER FOUR HOURS

By LEE LINDER
Associated Press Staff Writer
LEWISBURG Pa. (AP) — A federal district court jury has convicted Luzerne County labor leader August J. Lippi of scheming to defraud the bank he once headed of $38,977.

The jury deliberated for four and a half hours before returning the verdict Tuesday night.

"It's a just verdict under all the evidence," said U.S. Atty. Bernard J. Brown who successfully prosecuted the case.

PLAN APPEAL

Lippi's counsel, Edwin Kosik and James Walker, said nothing but outside significant proportions.

The Cape Verde Islands are regarded as an extension of the barren lands of North Africa. Sao Tome, in the Gulf of Guinea, was in the 16th century the most important slave port in West Africa. With the decline of that trade it became a leading exporter of cocoa.

outside the court except they plan to appeal.

The 63-year-old Lippi stood silently beside his attorneys as the clerk read the verdict on each of the 34 counts. After the verdict was announced, he sat unmoved at the counsel table. His wife, Lena, was in the courtroom, but said nothing.

Lippi is president of the United Mine Workers District 1 and was formerly president of the First National Bank of Exeter where an alleged shortage of nearly half a million dollars was uncovered. George Daileda, former cashier at the bank and chief witness against Lippi, testified he diverted some funds to cover bad checks by Lippi.

OFTEN IN COURT

In the past three years Lippi has been before both federal and commonwealth courts on charges ranging from involuntary manslaughter to corporate income tax evasion. He is also awaiting trial on a charge of personal income tax evasion.

Judge William J. Nealon deferred sentencing. Lippi could be sentenced to 170 years and fined $190,000 on his conviction on all the counts against him.

Judge Nealon thanked the members of the jury—nine men and three women—for their careful consideration of the evidence. The array of evidence in

Burglars Drop Bills At Bank Job

CORNELIA, Ga. (AP) — It cost some bungling burglars at least $92 when they broke into the Cornelia Bank.

Police Chief J. G. Davenport said Tuesday the burglars chopped a hole in the bank roof to gain entrance, but failed to reach any of the money.

They not only didn't gain by their efforts, but they dropped a roll of bills amounting to $92 and left behind a bottle half-filled with whisky.

cluded checks, deposit slips and bank records.

After the verdict was read, Nealon revoked Lippi's previous bail and set new bond of $30,000. His lawyers immediately made arrangements to post it, using his home in Exeter as security.

Lippi was specifically accused of 27 counts of aiding and abetting the bank's cashier in misapplication of funds for his own personal use, three counts of assisting the cashier in the making of false entries in bank records and four of swearing to false statements about the bank's financial condition.

Daileda, the cashier, has pleaded guilty to misapplying funds and is awaiting sentencing.

Bloody Battle Of Tarawa Opened 20 Years Ago Today

By FRED S. HOFFMAN
AP Military Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — After 20 years, Marine Gen. David M. Shoup still relives the blood-drenched Battle of Tarawa — all but a few vital seconds that remain a blank in his mind.

Those were the second it took Shoup to dash about 40 yards across bullet- and mortar-swept coral sand to the shelter of a blockhouse wall.

From there, the man who was to become commandant of the Marine Corps directed the savage assault on the tiny Central Pacific island which Japan had converted into a fortress.

990 MARINES KILLED
That three-day battle, which began at dawn just 20 years ago Wednesday, was the most costly brief engagement in Marine history.

When it was over, 990 Marines were dead — many shot down before they could wade ashore from disabled or stranded landing craft. Another 2,311 Leathernecks were wounded.

Only 18 of the 4,800-man Japanese garrison lived to be captured. The rest were slain in their bunkers, or killed themselves rather than surrender.

Shoup, 58, has good reason to remember Tarawa — he won the Medal of Honor there.

BADLY WOUNDED

The citation said this: "Although severely shocked by an exploding enemy shell soon after landing . . . and suffering from a serious, painful leg wound which had become infected, Col. Shoup fearlessly exposed himself to the terrific and relentless artillery, machinegun and rifle fire . . ."

"Rallying his hesitant troops . . . he gallantly led them across the fringing reefs to charge the heavily fortified island and reinforce our hard-pressed, thinly held lines . . ."

Graying but still rugged-looking, Shoup reminisced about the battle as he sat in his big, memento-cluttered office at Marine headquarters.

ALL CLEAR TODAY

"It's as clear as though it was yesterday," Shoup told an interviewer in accents that reflected his Indiana birth.

"But there's one period of several seconds that's been a blank all these years."

"I remember looking over a coconut log barrier and picking the route I would take. I remember reaching the blockhouse with my radio man. But I've never been able to reconstruct what happened in between."

Shoup had crouched behind the log barrier after wading several hundred yards through shallow water churned by bullets and exploding shells.

SHOT BETWEEN EYES

Like many of his men, Shoup started walking toward shore when his amphibious tractor was knocked out. His amtrack's driver was picked off.

The colonel clasped his hands with a Marine corporal and began pushing his way along the shallow reef.

"I felt his grip tighten, and I looked around at him," Shoup said.

"A sniper had put a bullet between his eyes."

Shoup was silent a moment, then went on:

"I wouldn't be here today if I hadn't turned to look at him."

For just then, another bullet fired by a Japanese sniper struck the water, spent its force and slammed into Shoup's neck. If it had hit him in the face, Shoup believes he would have been killed. Instead, he escaped with a badly swollen neck.

SHOT 9 TIMES

In all, Shoup was struck in nine different places. Most of the wounds were nicks, he said.

His most acute memories are the promises he made in an effort to comfort some of those who were dying under the blazing sun of Tarawa — promises to help take care of their children.

"These promises I made without any realization of how I could fulfill them," he said, "yet those men died believing what I promised."

To make good on those battlefield promises, Shoup has put all his weight behind a scholarship fund set up by the 2nd Marine Division Assn. to educate the children of men who died at Tarawa.

Tonight, as on all other anniversaries of the battle, Shoup will get together with a group of its survivors.

They will gather at the commandant's home for the last time before he retires Dec. 31, ending a 37-year career with the corps.

TO EXTEND SAFETY ACT

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House Education and Labor Committee has cleared a bill to extend the Federal Coal Mine Safety Act to smaller mines.

Under the present law, mines employing less than 15 miners are exempt.

The new bill would apply the Federal Coal Mine Safety Act to all mines engaging in interstate commerce, regardless of size.

9 Overcome By Blast Fumes

WILMINGTON, Del. (AP) — Stinging ammonia fumes swirled through a four-story factory Tuesday after an explosion, sending nine persons to a hospital.

Eight were released after treatment. One was held for observation.

Firemen said the explosion occurred at the Allied Kid Co.'s standard division plant.

They said an explosion blew off a part of an ammonia tank located in the basement. The blast shattered a window and sent fumes throughout the structure and spilling into the street.

About 200 employees, some of them covering the heads with shirts and coats, fled before the vapors. Seven of those taken to the hospital were employees. The others were pedestrians who were passing by the plant.

Firemen were at the plant five hours airing it out.

Held for observation was Minnie Hill, 30, of Newark.

DEATHS

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Richard L'Estrange, 73, movie-television official and one of Mack Sennett's original "Keystone Kops," died Tuesday.

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) — Mrs. Anna Davis Johnson, 79, mother-in-law of Sen. Barry Goldwater, R-Ariz., died Tuesday.

TORONTO, Ont. (AP) — Donald Summerville, 48, mayor of Toronto, died Tuesday after suffering a heart attack while playing in an exhibition hockey game.

VATICAN GIVES FINAL NOD TO MODERN MASS

By GERALD I. MILLER

VATICAN CITY (AP) — The Vatican Ecumenical Council Wednesday completed approval of a liturgical provision allowing the use of modern languages in the place of Latin in much of the Roman Catholic mass. The reform could help stimulate better understanding between the Catholics and Protestants.

A council vote last month approved a schema with changes in liturgy, or public worship. But the vote left several minor technical amendments hanging.

Wednesday the more than 2,100 council fathers overwhelmingly adopted amendments concerning the Mass, and prepared to vote later this week on similar amendments concerning other sections of the liturgy schema.

EARLY COMPLETION

The document is expected to be completed by the council and promulgated by Pope Paul VI before the council's second session ends Dec. 4.

A wide range of reforms in liturgical practices are embodied in the document, including use of modern languages in the sacraments, greater use of contemporary art in church buildings and decorations and the use of native instruments for religious ceremonies in African and Asian countries.

Underlying the document is the desire of many bishops to PORT AU PRINCE, HAITI (AP) — Another disaster has hit impoverished Haiti.

The Public Health Department reported about 500 bodies had been recovered following floods and landslides last weekend in the northern part of the country. The department said the toll was expected to climb.

Thousands were reported homeless and all crops were reported destroyed in the Grande Riviere Du Nord area, the country's most prosperous.

The northern regions had been spared by Hurricane Forz last month, which killed more than 5,000 Haitians.

SAIGON, Viet Nam (AP) — Leaders of a non-Communist guerrilla group that fought the Diem regime for years but agreed to rally to the new Vietnamese government apparently are still haggling over conditions for their return, according to American sources.

About 600 rebels, belonging to the religious-military Buddhist sect called the Hoa Hao, are camped in the upper Mekong Delta 110 miles west of Saigon. Their leaders are negotiating with revolutionary government officials.

Parliament member Hiren Mukherjee, a communist, asked Nehru about recent news reports from Washington that the United States might be considering replacing Pakistan's old Sabre jet fighters with modern combat planes.

"It is possible some re-equipping of Pakistan's air force may be going on. I do not know. We have repeatedly pointed out to the United States government that in view of the Pakistan government's attitude and policy, it would not be very desirable to set a kind of arms race between them and us."

PARIS (AP) — Socialist Gaston Defferre, mayor of Marseille, may challenge Charles de Gaulle in France's 1965 presidential election.

De Gaulle is virtually certain to seek re-election.

CHICAGO (AP) — Sir Winston Churchill's actress daughter Sarah has canceled her engagement at a suburban Chicago theater and says she's going home to England.

Miss Churchill was to have started rehearsals Tuesday in

A spokesman for the Drury Lane Theater said opening of the play scheduled for Thanksgiving, will be postponed until Dec. 1. The theater will try to find a substitute for Miss Churchill.

LONDON (AP) — A Soviet rocket specialist, Col. Gen. Vladimir Tolubko, says the Soviet Union has the strongest nuclear force, no matter what U.S. Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara says.

In a Moscow broadcast monitored in London, Tolubko said: "In the competition imposed on us by aggressive forces for quality and quantity of nuclear missiles, we not only do not drag behind those who menace us with war—we are very much better than they."

Tolubko, first assistant commander of Soviet strategic rocket forces, was replying to a recent speech by McNamara who claimed nuclear superiority for the United States.

JOHANNESBURG, South Africa (AP) — Five African miners were killed and five others were missing Wednesday after a rock fall at a gold mine at Carletonville, near Johannesburg.

Fourteen miners were injured but not seriously, the mine owners reported.

The rock fall occurred at a mine owned by the Anglo-American Corp.

Lancaster County Has Surplus Food

HARRISBURG (AP) — Lancaster County will soon become the 62nd county in the state to join the federal surplus food program.

The state Property and Supplies Department announced Tuesday that J. Robert Shank has been appointed county food administrator. He will supervise the distribution of food to needy families.

At present, 59 Pennsylvania counties distribute food directly to recipients while Cambria, Fayette and Luzerne Counties and the city of Pittsburgh participate in the foodstamp plan.

Work was begun in 1935 under Roosevelt to harness Passamaquoddy, Maine's tides. But the project became a political football and was abandoned in 1937.

How to add years to your life

100

100 years ago the average American could expect to live about 40 years. Today—about 70. Modern sanitation, diet, drugs and medical practice have added 30 years to our life span. And note that 70 is average. Many die sooner. Many live longer. You up your chances of being a "longer" if you eat properly and get proper medical care. This means periodic check-ups by your physician. As pharmacists we are pleased to help by supplying the drugs your doctor prescribes—drugs unknown a century ago. Rabbis Console Grieving Relatives Of Those Who Perished In Shore Blaze

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J. (AP) — Sixty men and women, some weeping quietly, sat in a corridor at city hall Tuesday waiting to be summoned by police. Rabbis walked among them, offering words of consolation.

They were grieving relatives and friends of 25 persons believed to have perished in the Surfside Hotel fire. Their purpose was to offer some clue, such as dental work or jewelry, to police and FBI agents at tempting to identify charred bodies found in the hotel rubble.

The hotel catered to elderly Jewish persons.

16 ARE MISSING

Eight bodies have been recovered and firemen are continuing their search for the bodies of 16 other men and women who were guests in the hotel and who have not been accounted for.

One woman died of burns after escaping the inferno that started in the Surfside and then ripped through adjoining buildings on Maryland Avenue.

A team of FBI experts from Washington is assisting local police in efforts to identify the bodies but so far no identities have been determined.

Rabbi Morris Fishman of Margate's Temple Beth El proposed that victims who remain unidentified be buried in a common grave with a marker bearing the names of all those missing.

OFFICIALS STUNNED

City officials, stunned by the loss of lives, ordered a probe of fire safety laws. Atlantic County Prosecutor Augustine A. Repetti said a grand jury will investigate the fire and fire safety regulations.

State law requires annual inspections of hotels, and Fire Chief Warren Conover said the Surfside had passed inspection last June. The investigation will consider increasing the number of inspections, Meredith Kerstetter, city public safety director, said.

Police still have not determined the cause of the $1 million fire. They said they were checking out all possible angles, including a report that a convicted arsonist had been seen two blocks away shortly after the fire broke out. Ventnor Municipal Judge Raymond Stark said two bus drivers told him they had seen a man who, records showed, had served a sentence in the Atlantic County Jail for arson.

TO BE QUESTIONED

Kerstetter said police would pick up the man for questioning "if he is available, as part of our routine investigation of the fire."

Conover said Tuesday he did not believe the fire had been set.

Officials said the fire destroyed four homes in addition to five hotels and a rooming house. Four other buildings were damaged.

The homes, narrow three-story structures at 1, 2, 3 and 4 Imperial Place, were behind the row of burning hotels. Occupants of the homes escaped injury.

Colonists at Berkeley Plantation, on the banks of Virginia's James River, observed a day of Thanksgiving on December 4, 1619 — three years before the Pilgrims held theirs.

SOCIAL CRISIS FACES NATION SEEKING JOBS

NEW YORK (AP) — Millionaire businessman John I. Snyder Jr. says the United States faces great social upheaval if it can't provide jobs for men replaced by machines.

Warning of "really staggering" unemployment, Snyder urged the AFL-CIO Tuesday to join with the federal government and the National Association of Manufacturers to find a solution.

"I'd join with the devil himself if I could find the solution to this problem," said AFL-CIO President George Meany.

Meany and 1,200 AFL-CIO convention delegates gave Snyder a reception that was warm although subdued after a convention floor fight over readmitting the ostracized Teamsters Union.

Meany, with the help of most delegates, wielded a heavy gavel, in killing the move to consider taking back the Teamsters, ousted on corruption charges in 1957.

Snyder, president of U.S. Industries Inc., manufacturers of automation equipment, linked the civil rights movement and the growing unemployment problem, saying:

"SLIM GAP"

"The gap between the column of figures running down the balance sheet and the column of Negroes marching down an embattled street is a slim one indeed."

He described himself as no particular friend of labor, but said automation equipment puts thousands of people out of work every week, and added:

"I want to sell the automation machines my company makes, and if our economy turns sour, if the unemployment problem is not solved, I will have difficulty selling them."

The problem calls for a total effort by labor, management and government, Snyder said, and he favored a reduced work week as one of the answers.

U.S. CARDINAL UPHOLDS MOVE ON LIBERTIES

By GERALD T. MILLER

Associated Press Staff Writer

VATICAN CITY (AP) — A group of American prelates, led by Albert Gregory Cardinal Meyer of Chicago, joined Wednesday in defense of proposed Roman Catholic declarations on Jews and religious liberty.

Moments later, the entire Swiss hierarchy of the Church added its support for the declaration on Jews, and said the council also should speak of "Moslems and all who believe in God in this age of atheism."

Cardinal Meyer was the first of the five American cardinals to speak on Christian unity.

MAIN CONTROVERSIES

The two declarations have been the main items of controversy since debate on the schema started Monday. Severford Chester, 51, of Elmhurst, N.Y. from the tangled wreckage. The police said Chester was alone in the car.

al bishops have criticized the insertion of the declarations into the schema, saying it should be limited to strictly Christian unity matters.

Several Middle East patri-archs have said the declaration on the Jews might have political implications in their Arab area.

No one has questioned the actual content of the declarations. The one on the Jews says they alone are not to blame for the crucifixion, but that all mankind is responsible. The statement on religious liberty upholds the right of individuals to worship God according to their consciences.

A council press spokesman reported Cardinal Meyer's remarks, paraphrasing him as saying:

COUNCIL MUST ACT

"Both declarations must be dealt with in the council. . . they are intimately connected with the topic of ecumenism and should remain where they are."

He expressed firm hope for their approval.

The spokesman said he was speaking for himself and an unspecified number of U.S. prelates.

Distraught Hubby Hides In Manhole

ROCHESTER, N.Y. (AP) —

"All I want is a little sleep," said Ralph Harris, 40, when he was discovered in a 25-foot-deep manhole.

A city employee was inspecting a water main when he came across Harris. He called the police.

Harris told officers he had a fight with his wife and "wanted to get away from her for awhile."

He removed the 70-pound cover to get into the manhole, but it had been put back into place by the time the inspector arrived. The employee said it would have been nearly impossible for Harris to get the top off from below and "it might have been another two years before we checked that manhole again."

Dirksen Opposes Proposal To Compel Congressmen To Disclose Incomes And Assets

By JAMES MARLOW
AP News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Republicans' Senate leader, Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois, is completely against any proposed law to compel members of Congress to disclose their incomes and assets.

He gave a very odd reason. He said he did not come to Congress to be a "second-class citizen." He didn't say that others who have to reveal their financial interests, like top government officials, are second class.

But Sen. Maurine Neuberger, D-Ore., pointed out:

CLOSE SCRUTINY

When Cabinet members and other executive appointments come up for Senate approval, before they can have their new job, they are forced to disclose their investments and "we treat them as if we were going to crucify them."

Members of both parties in Congress — particularly Dirksen's fellow — Senator from Illinois, Paul Douglas, a Democrat, have repeatedly called on Congress to approve a disclosure law on itself.

Two days ago so did Dirksen's opposite number, Mike Mansfield of Montana, leader of the Senate Democrats. But Dirksen said "I won't compromise an inch on this."

"POLICING POLICE"

It sifts down to a case of "who polices the policeman?" since members of Congress vote on measures involving business interests in which many of them have major or minor holdings.

A number of events in recent months, at least one of them sensational, has given added attention to the demands for a disclosure law.

But also involved is the question of ethical conduct, which Congress expects and demands from officials in the executive branch of government.

Last month Robert G. Baker, who began as a Senate page boy and wound up as secretary to the Senate Democrats with a salary of almost $20,000, quit when his Democratic bosses decided to question him.

SUIT STIRRED PROBE

This happened when a vending machine company sued him and the press not only found out about it but about a lot of Baker's other financial activities which seemed to extend across the country and down to Haiti.

From these stories Baker, now 35, looks like a tycoon. A Senate committee is investigating him.

In June former Rep. Frank W. Boykin, D-Ala., and former Rep. Thomas F. Johnson, D-Md., were convicted on conflict of interest and conspiracy charges in connection with a savings and loan company.

This month Rep. John W. Byrnes, R-Wis., a member of the Joint Congressional Committee on Internal Revenue

WINTER MOVES INTO MONTANA, SPREADS EAST

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Wintry weather zeroed in on northern and central areas in Montana Wednesday with cold, snow and brisk winds.

Temperatures dropped below zero in some areas as a blast of arctic air spread across the Canadian border. One of the cold spots was Cut Bank, with a reading of 5 below. Light snow fell in many sections, with heavy snow forecasts in Mountain areas.

Cold wave warnings were posted for Wyoming as the icy air spread southward and eastward. Colder weather also was in prospect for areas in the Dakotas and Minnesota.

Outside the cold belt temperatures were generally near or above seasonal levels. Readings were in the 30s and 40s in the major part of the country with the 50s and 60s reported in the Gulf and the southern Pacific Coast.

Light rain and clouds covered broad areas in the central part of the nation but no severe storms were reported. Rain also fell along the West Coast. More than two inches doused Point Piedras Blancas, Calif., in a six-hour period.

ADVERTISE IN THE TIMES

Lehigh University Claims Breakthrough On Weather

BETHLEHEM, Pa. (AP)—Lehigh University has announced what it describes as a major breakthrough in man's attempts to control and direct the weather.

The university said it had invented a series of low-cost cloud seeding agents used to control rainfall, fog, hurricanes, air-ground lightning, hail and other violent storms.

A patent application for the inventions involved has been filed, said Dr. Harvey A. Neville, Lehigh president. The patent application lists 10 processes which use materials more available and more economical than the silver iodide previously used for producing seed agents.

THEORY RULED OUT

The university also declared that the 17-year-old cloud physics theory which indicates that silver iodide is the most successful cloud-seeding agent known, is erroneous and has been replaced with a new concept.

Dr. Albert C. Zettlemoyer, the project director, explained that silver iodide always was thought to be the most successful agent because it was hydrophilic (water-accepting) and has a crystal structure much like ice.

He said the lehigh findings show that silver iodide is not water-accepting, but, rather, hydrophobic (water-repelling), with only one in four of its surface sites accepting water.

NUMEROUS AGENTS

Lehigh scientists found that the best agents are composed of material whose surfaces are largely water-repelling, with 20 to 30 per cent of their surfaces covered with hydrophilic sites spaced far enough apart so that water molecules can form loose clusters about each site.

Once this concept was established, Zettlemoyer said, the university chemists could prepare numerous cloud-seeding agents from many materials with the proper hydrophilic-hydrophobic balance.

Visitor To Have Mistreated Cat

UTICA, N.Y. (AP) — Many days and 300 miles away from Boston, the woman could not forget the sight of the cruelly mistreated kitten at the Old North Church.

Mrs. Harold Becraft of Utica recently visited the famous church.

In the courtyard, she made friends with a skinny stray kitten. The animal fed, however, when a boy kicked it. Mrs. Becraft could not forget the animal.

She phoned the Animal Rescue League in Boston and

MAN QUIZZED IN EXPLOSION AT UNIVERSITY

TUSCALOOSA, Ala. (AP) — A 40-year-old man was questioned and then released as police pressed an investigation into three explosions, two of them near the University of Alabama.

campus. A. L. Richey of Tuscaloosa was set free Monday after being picked up for questioning near the scene of the blast shortly after midnight Tuesday.

Richey told police he had parked his pickup truck after leaving a tavern and had fallen asleep and was awakened by the explosion.

Police have strengthened their patrols in an effort to solve the bombings, the first to occur since the university was desegregated under federal court order five months ago.

TIGHT SECURITY

Campus security was the tightest it has ever been, it was reported.

Police Chief W. M. Marable said the bombings apparently were an attempt to "stir up something because things are stalemated." Police Inspector Henry Butler said there were no definite leads in the bombings.

Negro student Vivian Malone, who desegregated the university along with James A. Hood, is under constant watch by federal marshals. She declined comment on the explosions.

2 Red Diplomats Beaten And Jailed By Congolese Security Agents Tuesday

LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo (AP) — Congolese security agents and gendarmes dragged two Soviet diplomats feet first from their car Tuesday, beat them with clubs and hauled them off to jail.

They were still held Wednesday.

Soviet embassy officials said the diplomats were embassy counsellor Boris Noronin and press attache Yuri Miakotnykh. The officials said they had no word on their fate.

Eyewitnesses said Noronin and Miakotnykh refused to allow the Congolese to search their car on their return from Brazzaville, across the Congo River. The diplomats claimed diplomatic immunity.

CUT PHONE LINES

Soviet embassy officials said the Congolese also had cut the telephone and electric supply to the luxury apartment where the 100-man Soviet mission lives and works.

Sources close to the Congolese government hinted that "highly compromising" documents had been seized from the two arrested diplomats.

Gendarmes stood guard outside the embassy building Tuesday night, refusing to allow callers to enter.

BAD RELATIONS

Relations between the Congolese government and the Communist bloc have been bad, and some members of Premier Cyrille Adoula's regime recently were agitating for a break with the Soviet Union, Poland, Czechoslovakia and Bulgaria, the Communist nations with which the Congo has diplomatic relations.

An eyewitness to the arrest of the two Russians said when they refused to allow a search of their car at the Brazzaville ferry landing, the Congolese let all the air out of the car's tires.

An argument lasting more than an hour followed. The Soviet diplomats sat stiffly in their car.

DRAWN FROM CAR

Finally, the Congolese forced open the car doors, dragged the Russians out and threw them into a Congolese army truck. When they tried to get off the truck, they were beaten with clubs, the witness said.

Another witness said one of the diplomats tried to push a document inside his shirt, but a Congolese grabbed his collar and ripped off his shirt front.

The first secretary of the British Embassy, Douglas Blyth, finally telephoned the Soviet Embassy.

CHARGE PLOT

Sources close to the government said the two Russians had been unable to satisfy security police they were diplomats.

Last month Congolese ministers accused an unnamed foreign embassy with financing a plot to bribe soldiers to arrest or kill government leaders prior to an armed coup.

Well-informed sources said at that time several ministers were demanding the rupture of diplomatic relations with the Communists and the United Arab Republic, claiming these embassies were the paymasters of subversion.

ADVERTISE IN THE TIMES

Two Russians from the embassy reached the landing stage after the diplomats had been driven off. It was not known where they were taken.

He called for sending uncommitted delegates from Pennsylvania to the party's nominating convention.

"Don't let us divide ourselves again," Scranton said. "Let us build, build, build a stronger Republican Party in Pennsylvania."

By "again," Scranton apparently referred to the eight years in which Democrats controlled Pennsylvania — a period ended with Scranton's election last year.

REVIEWS SUCCESS

"In 1961, we began to come back," he said. "In 1962, we came back better. In 1963 we came back better than that."

"We won three years in a row because we stuck together. We still are the minority party in this state. We've got to stick together and do a job."

"If we can keep unified then it is certain we can do a job in '64."

It had been announced that Scranton would meet with Goldwater today in Washington. However, the death of the Senator's mother-in-law, Mrs. Anna Davis Johnson, in Phoenix, may force a postponement.

SCRANTON TO ASK GOP UNITY OF CANDIDATES

HARRISBURG (AP) — Gov. William W. Scranton of Pennsylvania hopes the two front-runners for the 1964 Republican presidential nomination will not make his state a battleground.

He will make personal pleas for party unity to Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona and Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York. Rockefeller is the only avowed candidate, but Goldwater is expected to run.

Scranton's scheduled meeting with Rockefeller today in New York City was disclosed Tuesday night after an appearance by Scranton before the State Council of Republican Women.

Scranton will be making a futile effort, Goldwater said only Tuesday he is not an announced candidate and therefore can't control his supporters' activities in Pennsylvania.

Their activities include recruiting some impressive names to donate time, talent and funds to win the state delegation for the senator.

Scranton has said he would go to the convention as a favorite son candidate if there was no clear choice among Pennsylvania delegates.

As a favorite son, Scranton feels he could hold the Pennsylvania delegation together and maintain state party unity.

Family Of 16 Sets Example For Community In Happy Co-existence; Professor Buys Groceries In Volume; Vacation In Trailer

Editor's Note: Many a man with two or three children finds the going tough in trying to bring up what is considered an average family in this country. Who, then, would dare to take on the responsibility for a brood of 16? Undismayed by such a prospect, a college professor, left with 12 youngsters, married a widow with four, and together they have made a life for all that inspires their community. How they do it is told in this AP State Spotlight.

By RUSSELL LANDSTROM

DALLAS, Pa. (AP)—A dozen gallons of milk, up to 75 loaves of bread, potatoes by the bushel, sugar by the hundredweight—wouldn't that jolt your family food budget for one week?

All the more so since it's only the beginning?

It is routine reckoning in the teaching household of Dr. and Mrs. Jay Young, who were newlyweds 15 months ago and now have 16 children.

Young, 42, head of the chemistry department at King's college in nearby Wilkes-Barre, was a widower with 12 children.

COMBINED FAMILIES

Ann Treacy, 37, was a South Bend, Ind., widow with four.

They fell in love and married on Aug. 15, 1962.

Only one of the 16 sons and daughters doesn't live at home in this hard coal country town of about 3,000. He is John, 21, the eldest of them all, who is in his third year of study for the priesthood at the Holy Cross fathers' novitiate in Bennington, Vt.

The other Young children are: Paul, 19, a part-time student at King's College; Cecilia, 17, a freshman at College Misericordia here; Michael, 16, a sophomore at West Side Central Catholic High School in neighboring Kingston; Joseph, 15, a sophomore at Dallas High; Andrea, 14, a freshman at West Side Central Catholic.

Theresa, 13; Gregory, 11; Thomas, 10; Lucy, eight; and Margaret, six, who attend a parochial school in Dallas; and Antonia, four, who is too young to go to school.

The Treacy children are John, seven; Michael, eight; Cathleen, 10; and Eileen, 11, who attend the same parochial school as the others.

NEED OWN GROCERY

"What the professor and his wife need," said a neighbor affectionately, "are a school bus all their own, a built-in grocery store, and a half dozen dairy cows."

"How do they do it?" many another well-wisher wants to know.

The self-supplied answer, given in mock desperation, usually is: "I give up."

The Youngs tell you that they manage very well in their 19-room, three-story house, with three bathrooms, eight bedrooms, a restaurant style refrigerator-freezer, and a U-shaped table in the dining-room.

What about transportation for such a brood? people want to know.

The nine children enrolled in the first to the eighth grade at the parochial school, walk the short distance. The older boys hitch-hike. Sometimes they, like Cecilia, are dropped off by their father on his way to work in the family's sports car. On other occasions, Mrs. Young does some chauffeuring in a station wagon, which is also the old reliable when it comes to shopping.

RENT TRAILER

What to do about a long trip was solved last summer by the rental of a trailer with three tiers of bunks. Mr. and Mrs. Young packed up all but the three eldest children and headed for Montana where Young taught in summer school at Montana State College. Mother, father and the 13 boys and girls lived in the trailer throughout.

Mrs. Young usually shops on Monday, a quiet day in the stores, when the person at the checkout counter can really concentrate on her king-sized order.

She says the family grocery bill is about $300 a month. The milk, which is delivered, is extra.

It comes as no surprise that the manager of the supermarket where the Youngs do most of their shopping says, "Those folks are my best friends."

The milkman beams, too.

LARGE ICE BOX

Thanks to the big ice box the Youngs can hold in reserve whopping supplies of red meat, fish, poultry, frozen fruits and vegetables. Fresh vegetables and bakery goods are bought on an approximation of a wholesale plan. Naturally, Mrs. Young has cultivated a sixth sense for bargains.

Even breakfast at the Youngs is a meal to remember—a couple dozen eggs, maybe more, sizzling fragrantly, or if the youngsters hanker for pancakes the stack of flapjacks, if measurement could keep ahead of consumption, might well be as tall as one of the children himself.

HOME FOR LUNCH

Lunch might be described as the most relaxed meal. Eleven of the children go home for it, but at different times. Consequently, it is spread over two hours or more.

Nearly everyone has a hand in making dinner. Mother looks after the meat. The girls, except for the very youngest, prepare and cook the potatoes and other vegetables. Eileen, though not yet in her teens, shines in the baking department. So it is often left to her to make the cake. She and her sisters make pies, too, under mother's expert eye. Father helps set the table.

The cooperative plan extends to after dinner chores. More often than not each member of the family washes his own dishes and silverware, an orderly line forming to avoid crowding and confusion at the sink.

HOMEWORK SCHEDULE

The parents are firm about the children's homework, insisting that it must be done right after school. When it is done the children are free to play until mealtime, and they have the same privilege for a while after dinner.

Nothing is so firmly fixed in the Youngs' family life as the evening devotions. Neither the pressure of Young's own homework, pursued in his study, nor his wife's never ending task of darning and mending interferes with this ritual. To see this large, closely-knit, happy family kneeling in the spacious living-room and hearing it intone the Rosary is indeed a warm, spiritual experience.

Bedtime is from a little after 8 to 9:30 or perhaps 10, at least

HOUSE PASSES PUBLIC WORKS BILL TUESDAY

WASHINGTON (AP)—The House has approved a bill providing $4,276,116,400 for public works projects, including several in Pennsylvania and surrounding areas.

The vote on the bill was 359-77. The amount was $285,630,500 less than that sought by President Kennedy.

The measure, which now goes to the Senate, finances river and harbor and flood control projects, reclamation programs, the Atomic Energy Commission and other public works activities.

HOUSE PROJECTS

No funds were included, however, for projects in selected depressed areas. Last week the President asked for $45 million to be used principally in Eastern Kentucky, but was turned down by the House Appropriations Committee.

Meanwhile the Senate passed a bill Tuesday authorizing a $10 million increase in the community facility loan fund.

The recommended House appropriations included, by projects: Army Engineer projects: Pennsylvania throughout the school year. That is for the sufficient reason that the average day in the Young home starts at 5:30 a.m.

The children watch television, but not at random, and not in heavy doses. Says Mrs. Young: "We don't believe in letting the children turn it on and off whenever they want to."

Then, as if such a truth were not implicit in the situation, she adds: "My husband and I are usually too busy to watch it."

GOP Women Favor Free Delegation

HARRISBURG (AP)—The Pennsylvania Council of Republican Women has endorsed Gov. William W. Scranton's proposal to send an uncommitted delegation to the 1964 GOP national convention.

The council's newly-elected board voted unanimously Wednesday "to support wholeheartedly the position of the Republican state committee in its stand to keep Pennsylvania united by the election of uncommitted delegations."

In a speech before the GOP women on Tuesday, Scranton had said it was a political necessity to send uncommitted delegates to the national convention in the interest of state party unity.

Communism Inches Closer In 'Neutralist' Cambodia

An AP News Analysis By WILLIAM L. RYAN AP Special Correspondent

Communism has inched a bit closer to one of its short-term goals in Southeast Asia, and the long-range threat to that strategic area has been increased.

What has just happened in Cambodia should be no surprise. The United States has had more than two years to prepare for the announcement that Cambodia would send the Yankes packing, along with their aid.

Surprise or not, the effect can be to advance the cause of neutralism in the area. It can cause rulers to weigh cautiously the prospects for making peace with Peking.

The Communists achieved a step in their campaign to move in on Southeast Asia when a neutralist formula for Laos was adopted at Geneva. Laos borders Cambodia on the north and separates it from China. The Communists wanted the same formula for the other former French Indo-China states, including South Viet Nam.

COMMUNIST DOMINATION

The idea appeared to be neutralization first, then expulsion of Western influence. Finally the Communists would dominate, and not necessarily by outright conquest.

Any unraveling of Red designs in Asia is complicated by the ideological war between Moscow and Peking. Moscow helped evolve the neutralist formula for Laos, but Southeast Asia is out of Moscow's reach. If it is to be dominated by a Communist power, it will be by Red China.

More than two years ago, Prince Norodom Sihanouk, Cambodia's chief of state, told a Soviet newspaper that if his country had to be allied with any foreign power, "it probably would not be with one in the West, which has never understood or supported us."

This was despite American aid. It bruises American feelings to learn that U.S. aid is not always entirely welcome in Southeast Asia. It sometimes creates — as in Laos — problems of inflation and economic dislocations.

There never seemed much mutual confidence between the assisting Americans and the Cambodian regime. Always conscious of China, and with the Oriental long-range view of the future, the Cambodian regime wanted to be neutral. The Americans feared it would be "neutral" on the Communist side.

Cambodia is taking the plunge and divorcing herself from U.S. help. If this neutralism, combined with that of Laos, should lead one day to domination of the two countries by Communists, overtly or covertly, the West would suffer a severe strategic setback.

TORONTO (AP)—A six-man contingent from the Toronto Olympic Club will compete in the United States 10,000-meter cross-country junior championship at Chicago Saturday. Coach Paul Poce announced Wednesday.
